Gilbert Oliver Dies Of Injuries As Auto Wrecks In Hancock

A 37-year-old city father of 4 died early today in the Weirton General Hospital of internal injuries received in a one-car traffic accident Thursday night at 11:30 on rain-slicked Route 2 near New Cumberland.

Gilbert L. Oliver of 320 E. 3rd St., Hancock County's second traffic fatality for April and 1959, died of injuries suffered when his northbound auto failed to negotiate a sharp curve at the south end of the New Cumberland city limits.

A Crucible Steel Co. employe, Mr. Oliver was the third person killed in five months on the curve near the Phillips Lumber Co.

Squire John D. Herron of New Cumberland, acting county coroner, ruled "accidental death" after inspecting the scene of the crash. Sheriff's deputies said Mr. Oliver was pinned in the wreckage of his 1951 Chrysler which may have grazed a parked truck of the lumber company before coming to rest over the embankment.

Deputies added that the car remained upright and that the victim was traveling alone. A Midland father and son died in another crash on the same sharp curve late in 1958.

The hospital said the victim was admitted to the emergency room at 11:55 last night, and died of internal injuries at 1:50 a. m. today.

Born in East Liverpool Sept. 22, 1921, Mr. Oliver was a lifetime resident of this vicinity and was employed 14 years in the cold strip department at the Midland Works. He was a member of Local 1212.

He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Kathleen Oliver, and four sons, John Oliver, David Oliver, James Oliver and Michael Oliver, all at home; a brother, Harold Oliver of East Liverpool, and three sisters, Mrs. Helen Horton of Los Angeles, Mrs. Lois Stoffel of Hollywood, Calif., and Mrs. Marjorie Webber of Anaheim, Calif.

Services will be held Monday at 2 p. m. at the Martin Funeral Home. John Mostoller, minister of the First Church of Christ, will officiate. Burial will be in Spring Grove Cemetery.

Friends may call at the funeral home Saturday and Sunday afternoon and evening.

Move Taken In Talk With Eisenhower

President Reveals Step With Regret After Conference

WASHINGTON (AP) — Clare Boothe Luce quit today as ambassador to Brazil because of her public row with Sen. Wayne Morse (D-Ore).

President Eisenhower regretfully announced her decision after an hour's talk with her at the White House.

In a letter to the President, Mrs. Luce said:

"It is no longer possible for me to accomplish the mission which you have entrusted to me."

Presidential Press Secretary James C. Hagerty told a news conference that Eisenhower sought to persuade Mrs. Luce to reconsider her decision to quit.

"But her letter gives the reasons why she felt she could not reconsider her decision," Hagerty said.

Mrs. Luce, solemn-faced, stood beside Hagerty as he announced her decision. She refused to make any comment on her decision other than that set out in her letter.

Her letter said the "climate of good will was poisoned by thousands of words of extraordinarily ugly charges against my person, and of distrust of the mission I was to undertake."

She did not mention Sen. Morse by name, but she noted that "the American author of these charges" is also chairman of a Senate subcommittee which handles Latin American affairs.

Morse tried to block Senate approval of her appointment but was defeated by a 79-11 vote in her favor Tuesday.

A few hours after this, Mrs. Luce caused an angry uproar by saying in New York that her troubles began when Morse was "kicked in the head by a horse" in 1951.

Invaders Set To Surrender, Leader Says

Ready To Submit To Panama Courts For Quick Settlement

PANAMA (AP)—The leader of the Cuban invaders of Panama said today he and his men are ready to surrender unconditionally and submit to Panamanian courts.

Cesar Vega, a former Havana night club owner who led the expeditionary force of less than 100 ashore six days ago, said he would return to the invaders' base on the Caribbean coast and get formal approval from his men. But he said he had already taken an opinion poll and the discouraged adventurers favored a quick settlement.

"We are optimistic about reaching a settlement within a few days," said a spokesman for the inter-American team of diplomats trying to end the threat to Panamanian President Ernesto de la Guardia's government.

Vega said he was responding to direct surrender appeals from Cuban Prime Minister Fidel Castro, his brother Raul, commander of the Cuban armed forces, and the Organization of American States.

Vega and three others of his party were flown to the U.S.-controlled Canal Zone Thursday to talk with the peace mission sent from Washington by the 21-nation OAS.

An OAS spokesman refused to divulge details of the all-night conference held at the U.S. Albrook Air Force Base.

Vote Supplies Prepared For Polls Tuesday

The County Election Board is preparing today for distribution of supplies to polling places, which will put everything in readiness for primary elections Tuesday.

For the northern section of the county, the supplies will be distributed from 9 a. m. to noon Saturday at the Courthouse in Lisbon. In East Liverpool, they will be handed out Monday from 9 a. m. to 4 p. m. at the Election Board's office on W. 6th St., opposite City Hall.

The supplies for Wellsville precincts will be distributed Monday at 6:45 p. m. at Wellsville City Hall. Presiding judges will call for the supplies in each case.

Both parties will hold primaries in East Liverpool, Wellsville, East Palestine, Salem and Salineville. Lisbon will have only a GOP primary, as Democrats have no contests. Columbiana and Leetonia will skip the primaries, as neither party has a contest. However, Leetonia will vote in a special election on a proposed 4-mill village operating levy.

104 Special Ballots Issued For Primary

A total of 104 Columbiana County residents obtained absentee and disabled voters' ballots for the primary elections Tuesday before the deadline Thursday at 4 p. m., Frank R. O'Hanlon, clerk of the Election Board, said today.

O'Hanlon added that 100 of the "early" ballots already have been voted and returned. In order to be counted at the polls Tuesday, the ballots were required to be back in the board's hands at noon today. The board also has issued seven ballots under the "soldier voting law" to service personnel and civilians residing temporarily outside the U.S. Six have been returned.

Labor Council Files Petitions To Repeal Tax

1,833 Signatures Obtained, Or 1,000 More Than Needed

Joseph A. Winters, secretary of Trades and Labor Council, filed petitions today with City Auditor H. J. Gallimore to seek a referendum at the Nov. 3 general election on the new income tax ordinance enacted by Council April 6.

Winters said the 25 petitions carried 1,833 voters' signatures — almost 1,000 more than the minimum required by law to obtain a ballot place. Trades council was required to have a minimum of 867 valid signatures of voters.

If the question goes onto the ballot, it will delay collection of the tax of 60 cents per $100 of income pending a decision at the polls. Council enacted the legislation without an emergency clause, inviting a referendum.

Law requires the auditor to determine if the petitions are "sufficient" — if they contain enough valid signatures to require a vote. If he determines the petitions are valid, he certifies that fact to the Election Board, along with the text of the questioned ordinance. However, he is required to hold the petitions in his office at least 10 days.

The deadline for filing the question with the board is also the filing deadline for the November election — Aug. 5 at 4 p. m.

Instead of printing the entire text of the 25 - page ordinance on the ballot, state law allows the Election Board to use a boiled down summary or resume. But it also must post the full text of the ordinance in every polling place for voters' inspection. To save printing expenses, the board expects to use copies of legal notices which appeared in the Review, containing the full text of the legislation.

Godfrey Told Of Cancer In Chest Tumor

NEW YORK (AP)—Arthur Godfrey was told today that the tumor removed from his chest Thursday was cancerous. He made no special comment on the news and seemed in good spirits, according to a hospital announcement.

A mid-morning report from the Columbia - Presbyterian Medical Center said:

"Mr. Godfrey was taken from the recovery room to his room in the Harkness Pavilion this morning about 7 a.m.

"His doctors stated that his condition is entirely satisfactory and that he has been doing fine in post operative recovery.

"He has been told the results of the operation and had no special comment about it.

"He was described as being in good spirits."

The hospital plans to issue reports twice each day on the broadcasting star's condition, at 10 a.m. and 4:30 p.m.

Earlier, the hospital said he "spent a satisfactory postoperative night with no complications."

The 55-year-old, red-haired radio and TV star, who underwent five-hour surgery Thursday for removal of a lung cancer, slept under sedation through the night in the hospital recovery room. His wife Mary remained at the hospital.

Legislators Told To Study Money Needs

DiSalle Distributes Copies Of Big Tax Plans To Assembly

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Ohio's legislators were at their homes today, but the big money fight of the 103rd general assembly went home with them.

Each lawmaker—Republican or Democrat—has in his hands a summary of the state's financial prospects.

The summary maintains that the state needs about 335 million dollars in new revenue in the next two years to keep the state subsidies and services alive, and about 33 millions more for a financial cushion.

Almost all Republicans in the Legislature—and some of the majority Democrats—have been reluctant to give Gov. Michael V. DiSalle the money he says he needs to keep the state solvent and still move ahead on necessary programs. The "homework" assigned to the lawmakers is the first move in DiSalle's big pitch to get the tax program approved.

"This will give them an idea of where to start cutting, if —" DiSalle commented as he handed copies of the summary to newsmen late Thursday.

Most of DiSalle's tax program has passed the House, except for the sales tax revision bill calculated to raise another 119 million dollars in the next two years.

That bill started in the Senate and still is bogged down there. It is bogged down to the extent that Senate Taxation Committee Chairman Stephen R. Olenick (D-Mahoning) has given up and has said it is up to DiSalle or Senate Majority Leader Frank W. King (D-Lucas) to get the one additional vote needed to bring the sales tax bill out of committee.

DiSalle and Finance Director James Maloon have been insisting of late that the state needs a 25-million-dollar operating balance —just to have "money in the bank" to pay bills when tax collections lag. For that reason, they say the yield of proposed taxes would leave only about eight million dollars in surplus at the end of the two - year bookkeeping period which ends June 30, 1961.

Wage Boost, Shorter Week Goal Of USW

NEW YORK (AP)—The United Steelworkers of America seek "substantial wage increases" and other major benefits in a drive for their best contract in the basic steel industry since the union was founded 23 years ago.

The union's 171-member Wage Policy Committee is meeting here to map its program for negotiations with the major steel companies which start here next Tuesday.

The union has not announced what gains it will seek for the half-million of its members in the basic steel industry.

Present wages average $3.03 an hour.

AFL - CIO President George Meany told the Wage Policy Committee that the federation will support the Steelworkers in their contract demands.

Union President David J. McDonald drew cheers when he told the committee that the negotiations will result in an "even greater agreement" than the current one that the union won after a five-week strike three years ago. He described the current contract, which expires June 30, as the "greatest labor agreement ever made in the history of our country."

The steel companies have called for a one-year freeze on wages and other benefits.

Strike Benefits Given Potters Total $234,119

Bargaining Sessions Continue In Effort To End Stoppage

The International Brotherhood of Operative Potters said today it has issued checks totaling $234,119.55 to its local unions, representing strike benefits which they will pass onto their members for the first two weeks of a general work stoppage in 11 dinnerware plants.

Lump sum checks were mailed to each local union from international headquarters. Local union secretaries will deposit the funds in a bank and then issue individual checks to eligible members, the IBOP explained.

The total represents the amount disbursed through Thursday. Headquarters began issuing the checks to local unions Wednesday and completed the job yesterday.

Eligible strikers are entitled to benefits of $25 a week. When obtaining the checks from local union officers, strikers are required to sign a roll acknowledging receipt.

IBOP headquarters emphasized that the determination of eligibility for the benefits is made by the local unions. The strike against five area plants and six others in scattered locations became two weeks old Wednesday.

Meanwhile, the IBOP resumed

Weirton Local Signs Contract

More than 300 employes of the Manufacturers Light & Heat Co. in the Pittsburgh area struck today in a contract dispute but the local in the Weirton area was among three that accepted terms and remained at work.

Three unions are involved in the contract negotiations.

Service was not interrupted. Supervisory personnel continued delivery of natural gas. Routine service calls were not being handled but the company said it would answer all emergency calls.

District 50 of the United Mine Workers represented about 200 of the strikers at the Pittsburgh South Side and South Hills branches of the company.

Three other locals of the UMW accepted contract terms and about 400 employes continued on the job in the Uniontown and Washington, Pa., and Weirton areas.

In the Beaver Valley some 230 workers continued on the job as negotiations continued. They are members of an independent union.

Journey Set Next Month

Discoverer III To Carry 4 Black Mice Into Space

VANDENBERG AIR FORCE BASE, Calif. (AP) — Four black mice sail into space next month in an American attempt to prove that a living creature can leave earth and return alive.

The mice will ride in a specially designed "life package" capsule in the nose cone of Discoverer III. The satellite is expected to be launched into polar orbit from this West Coast missile base in about 30 days.

The little astronauts will be chosen from 50 black mice now under observation at Holloman Air Force Base, N.M.

Scientists will measure their reactions to blastoff, weightlessness and the stresses of re-entry. The main object, though, is to get something alive into orbit and back to earth again safely.

This has never been done with any animal.

One unofficial source said there was about one chance in 100 of success.

The Air Force had no comment.

How long the four black mice will stay aloft was not disclosed.

The Discoverer III capsule, painted a yellowish green, will be almost a yard wide and two feet high. If all goes well, it will drift earthward after ejection over the Pacific beneath a bright orange parachute.

Hawaii-based planes will try to snatch it with nets as it descends. If they miss, the buoyant cone's radio beacon is designed to send out signals for at least 10 hours to pinpoint its location for search vessels.

President Reveals Step With Regret After Conference

WASHINGTON (AP) — Clare Boothe Luce quit today as ambassador to Brazil because of her public row with Sen. Wayne Morse (D-Ore).

President Eisenhower regretfully announced her decision after an hour's talk with her at the White House.

Labor Council Files Petitions To Repeal Tax

1,833 Signatures Obtained, Or 1,000 More Than Needed

Joseph A. Winters, secretary of Trades and Labor Council, filed petitions today with City Auditor H. J. Gallimore to seek a referendum at the Nov. 3 general election on the new income tax ordinance enacted by Council April 6.

Winters said the 25 petitions carried 1,833 voters' signatures — almost 1,000 more than the minimum required by law to obtain a ballot place. Trades council was required to have a minimum of 867 valid signatures of voters.

If the question goes onto the ballot, it will delay collection of the tax of 60 cents per $100 of income pending a decision at the polls. Council enacted the legislation without an emergency clause, inviting a referendum.

Law requires the auditor to determine if the petitions are "sufficient" — if they contain enough valid signatures to require a vote. If he determines the petitions are valid, he certifies that fact to the Election Board, along with the text of the questioned ordinance. However, he is required to hold the petitions in his office at least 10 days.

The deadline for filing the question with the board is also the filing deadline for the November election — Aug. 5 at 4 p. m.

Instead of printing the entire text of the 25 - page ordinance on the ballot, state law allows the Election Board to use a boiled down summary or resume. But it also must post the full text of the ordinance in every polling place for voters' inspection. To save printing expenses, the board expects to use copies of legal notices which appeared in the Review, containing the full text of the legislation.

Legislators Told To Study Money Needs

DiSalle Distributes Copies Of Big Tax Plans To Assembly

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Ohio's legislators were at their homes today, but the big money fight of the 103rd general assembly went home with them.

Each lawmaker—Republican or Democrat—has in his hands a summary of the state's financial prospects.

The summary maintains that the state needs about 335 million dollars in new revenue in the next two years to keep the state subsidies and services alive, and about 33 millions more for a financial cushion.

Almost all Republicans in the Legislature—and some of the majority Democrats—have been reluctant to give Gov. Michael V. DiSalle the money he says he needs to keep the state solvent and still move ahead on necessary programs. The "homework" assigned to the lawmakers is the first move in DiSalle's big pitch to get the tax program approved.

"This will give them an idea of where to start cutting, if —" DiSalle commented as he handed copies of the summary to newsmen late Thursday.

Most of DiSalle's tax program has passed the House, except for the sales tax revision bill calculated to raise another 119 million dollars in the next two years.

That bill started in the Senate and still is bogged down there. It is bogged down to the extent that Senate Taxation Committee Chairman Stephen R. Olenick (D-Mahoning) has given up and has said it is up to DiSalle or Senate Majority Leader Frank W. King (D-Lucas) to get the one additional vote needed to bring the sales tax bill out of committee.

DiSalle and Finance Director James Maloon have been insisting of late that the state needs a 25-million-dollar operating balance —just to have "money in the bank" to pay bills when tax collections lag. For that reason, they say the yield of proposed taxes would leave only about eight million dollars in surplus at the end of the two - year bookkeeping period which ends June 30, 1961.

Wage Boost, Shorter Week Goal Of USW

NEW YORK (AP)—The United Steelworkers of America seek "substantial wage increases" and other major benefits in a drive for their best contract in the basic steel industry since the union was founded 23 years ago.

The union's 171-member Wage Policy Committee is meeting here to map its program for negotiations with the major steel companies which start here next Tuesday.

The union has not announced what gains it will seek for the half-million of its members in the basic steel industry.

Present wages average $3.03 an hour.

AFL - CIO President George Meany told the Wage Policy Committee that the federation will support the Steelworkers in their contract demands.

Union President David J. McDonald drew cheers when he told the committee that the negotiations will result in an "even greater agreement" than the current one that the union won after a five-week strike three years ago. He described the current contract, which expires June 30, as the "greatest labor agreement ever made in the history of our country."

The steel companies have called for a one-year freeze on wages and other benefits.

Strike Benefits Given Potters Total $234,119

Bargaining Sessions Continue In Effort To End Stoppage

The International Brotherhood of Operative Potters said today it has issued checks totaling $234,119.55 to its local unions, representing strike benefits which they will pass onto their members for the first two weeks of a general work stoppage in 11 dinnerware plants.

Lump sum checks were mailed to each local union from international headquarters. Local union secretaries will deposit the funds in a bank and then issue individual checks to eligible members, the IBOP explained.

The total represents the amount disbursed through Thursday. Headquarters began issuing the checks to local unions Wednesday and completed the job yesterday.

Eligible strikers are entitled to benefits of $25 a week. When obtaining the checks from local union officers, strikers are required to sign a roll acknowledging receipt.

IBOP headquarters emphasized that the determination of eligibility for the benefits is made by the local unions. The strike against five area plants and six others in scattered locations became two weeks old Wednesday.

Meanwhile, the IBOP resumed

Weirton Local Signs Contract

But Other Natural Gas Workers Strike

More than 300 employes of the Manufacturers Light & Heat Co. in the Pittsburgh area struck today in a contract dispute but the local in the Weirton area was among three that accepted terms and remained at work.

Three unions are involved in the contract negotiations.

Service was not interrupted. Supervisory personnel continued delivery of natural gas. Routine service calls were not being handled but the company said it would answer all emergency calls.

District 50 of the United Mine Workers represented about 200 of the strikers at the Pittsburgh South Side and South Hills branches of the company.

Three other locals of the UMW accepted contract terms and about 400 employes continued on the job in the Uniontown and Washington, Pa., and Weirton areas.

The AFL-CIO Utility Workers represented about 125 employes who struck at Wheeling.

In the Beaver Valley some 230 workers continued on the job as negotiations continued. They are members of an independent union.

Manufacturers' Beaver County office is at New Brighton. The utility serves several communities on the north side of the county.

Journey Set Next Month

Discoverer III To Carry 4 Black Mice Into Space

VANDENBERG AIR FORCE BASE, Calif. (AP) — Four black mice sail into space next month in an American attempt to prove that a living creature can leave earth and return alive.

The mice will ride in a specially designed "life package" capsule in the nose cone of Discoverer III. The satellite is expected to be launched into polar orbit from this West Coast missile base in about 30 days.

The little astronauts will be chosen from 50 black mice now under observation at Holloman Air Force Base, N.M.

Scientists will measure their reactions to blastoff, weightlessness and the stresses of re-entry. The main object, though, is to get something alive into orbit and back to earth again safely.

This has never been done with any animal.

One unofficial source said there was about one chance in 100 of success.

The Air Force had no comment.

How long the four black mice will stay aloft was not disclosed.

The Discoverer III capsule, painted a yellowish green, will be almost a yard wide and two feet high. If all goes well, it will drift earthward after ejection over the Pacific beneath a bright orange parachute.

Hawaii-based planes will try to snatch it with nets as it descends. If they miss, the buoyant cone's radio beacon is designed to send out signals for at least 10 hours to pinpoint its location for search vessels.

ATTENTION! Maintenance Men Local 172 strike benefits will be paid Sat. evening. Room 4, 7:30. Headquarters I.B.O.P.—Ad.

A similar school for East Palestine precinct workers was held Thursday night in the Old City Hall building.

The board announced that a representative of the voting machine company will be available on election day in case he is needed in connection with the test of the devices in the two communities.

negotiations today with the U. S. Potters Association, seeking an agreement that will end the strike.

The mediated conference has been under way intermittently since Monday at the USPA headquarters. Federal Mediator George Woomer is acting as go-between.

The air of optimism that hung over the negotiations was dispelled after meetings yesterday. The IBOP and USPA spokesmen met until noon. Yesterday afternoon, the USPA conferees held a private session and there were no union-management talks.

However, in late afternoon, the union and USPA spokesmen agreed to meet again this morning at 9:30 in the USPA office.

The stage was set for the strike when negotiations between the two groups broke down April 13 at Pittsburgh. The strike started April 15.

The Potters Herald, official union newspaper, made no forecast of a settlement in its weekly edition today. It merely reviewed the resumption of negotiations briefly and said the talks are continuing.

IBOP Organizes Local For H. K. Porter Plant

The International Brotherhood of Operative Potters said today it has organized a new local union to represent employes of the H. K. Porter Co.'s tile manufacturing plant at Pascagoula, Miss.

The new unit will be known as Local 305, the IBOP said. It already has held an organization meeting and named officers.

YOU CAN HELP HOLD THE LINE AGAINST HIGHER AUTO TAXES

The Columbiana County Motor Club asks that you write your State Legislators TODAY. Urge that they "Go Slow" on new Motor Car Taxes.

Unless the voters get to their state representatives in Columbus quickly, auto taxes are certain. Already they are the highest in state history. The Columbiana County Motor Club, the Ohio State Automobile Association, and the AAA believe motorists want good highways and are willing to pay the bill. However, we further believe that if higher taxes are essential such increases should be based on demonstrated needs.

Hasty increases in taxes will excessively burden the motorist More information as to goals, procedures and how the proposed highway monies will be spent is vital right now.

That is why The COLUMBIANA COUNTY MOTOR CLUB IS OPPOSED TO:

... AN INCREASE IN LICENSE PLATE FEES

The proposed jump from $10 to $15 as a 50% increase. It's too high especially as an automobile license is no measure of highway use. SO ...

... AN INCREASE IN DRIVER'S LICENSE FEES

A 600% increase is proposed — from $1 for 3 years to $2 for one year. Here is another license having no bearing on highway use. The proposal is a backward step upsetting the present efficient, convenient 3-year plan. SO—

AND GASOLINE TAXES??

An increase in gasoline taxes of 2 cents per gallon has already passed the House of Representatives though the State Senate has yet to act. Regular gasoline now costs 20.9c a gallon before tax. The proposal raises your gas tax to 7c per gallon—or some 35% of the retail price, and with the 3-cent Federal tax, you would have a levy equal to nearly 50% of the cost of a gallon.

The Club believes that if any increase in gasoline taxes is currently needed it should be temporary for a 2-year period and the monies distributed to the state, counties, municipalities and townships according to the same formulas as that which governs existing gasoline taxes. Gasoline is a necessity, not a luxury. SO

Our Primary Recommendations

In addition to races for Council posts in the various wards, East Liverpool voters will decide six contests when they go to the polls in next Tuesday's primary.

Two will be on the Republican ticket—for president of Council and for three Council-at-large posts—and four on the Democratic ticket—for mayor, for president of Council, for solicitor and for three Council-at-large posts.

Mayor Fred P. Lawrence is unopposed for nomination on the GOP slate.

Mayor (Democrat)

Seeking the nomination are James Moore, Robert Owen and Bert H. Goodballet.

Mr. Moore is a newcomer to local politics. Mr. Owen and Mr. Goodballet are not—the former having served as a councilman and the latter as a councilman and as president of Council. Mr. Goodballet also won the nomination for mayor in the May 1957 primaries, but lost to Mr. Lawrence in the general election.

The choice seems to lie between Mr. Owen and Mr. Goodballet.

During his years of service, Mr. Goodballet has acquired a broad working knowledge of city government, a factor that should not be overlooked in weighing the qualifications of the candidates.

Because of this experience, The Review recommends Mr. Goodballet for the mayoral nomination.

Council President (Republican)

B. E. Warner, the incumbent, is opposed by H. A. Tullis, present councilman from the First Ward.

Mr. Warner has performed his duties well during his first term. Not only in Council but in other capacities he has demonstrated an intense interest in the city's future.

There appears to be no need for a change in the Council presidency at this time. The Review strongly recommends that Mr. Warner be retained.

Council President (Democrat)

Charles N. Edwards and Rudolph E. Halpate are contesting for the post.

Mr. Edwards has been a barber in the East End for years. Mr. Halpate has been active in lodge circles.

The choice here is clearcut—Mr. Edwards.

Council-At-Large (Republicans)

The candidates are Harry Wilson, J. E. Curry, A. Stanley Kidder, Robert W. Sample Jr. and George E. Willshaw.

The last three are incumbents, with Mr. Willshaw and Mr. Sample having been exceptionally capable as chairmen of Council's finance and street committees, respectively.

It would be regrettable if the incumbents were turned out of office without being given further opportunity to battle for the many material improvements which the city needs and to continue their support of the present administration.

The Review recommends Mr. Willshaw, Mr. Sample and Mr. Kidder.

Council-At-Large (Democrat)

The candidates are John A. Melvin, Clarence E. Reagle, Clinton R. Seevers, John R. Weber, Benjamin Ziegler and Donald S. Hancock.

Mr. Seevers and Mr. Hancock are two of those deserving of support in this contest.

The former previously served as Fourth Ward Councilman. The latter is an employe of the Midland Works of the Crucible Steel Co.

Solicitor (Democrat)

Joseph Cooper, seeking his fifth term, is opposed by another attorney, Lawrence W. Smith. Both are capable.

Mr. Cooper has performed his duties as solicitor more than satisfactorily. He has a knowledge of the solicitor's post as the result of lengthy service which should help both him and the city in tackling new problems that will lie ahead.

Despite qualifications also possessed by Mr. Smith, The Review feels that Mr. Cooper should be renominated and then re-elected in November.

Ward Councilmen

Here are the candidates on the rival tickets: Republican, First Ward, John W. Barrett (unopposed); Second Ward, William Y. Orr and Frank J. Youst Jr.; Third Ward, Vincent C. Laneve, Lawrence J. Zollinger and William T. Kind; Fourth Ward, Samuel B. Webber (unopposed).

Democrat: First Ward, Alonzo Spencer, Herman L. Steffen and Clifford J. Cooper; Second Ward, John F. Kelly, William J. Mount, Ralph J. Twyford and Jack L. Fair; Third Ward, Donald E. Smith and Theodore Sell; Fourth Ward, Robert B. Laughlin and James Flasco.

Many are seeking office for the first time and have had no opportunity to prove themselves. Two who face contests, however, have served previously. Mr. Orr being an incumbent and Mr. Kind having filled one term before being defeated.

Mr. Orr has worked hard at the job and certainly is deserving of another term. Mr. Kind performed conscientiously as a member of Council's street committee during his time in office and appears to be worthy of support.

In the other races, both the candidate's interest toward his ward and the city as a whole should be taken into consideration by the voters along with his personal qualifications before they make their final choices.

A Free Choice On May Day

May Day has been a special occasion in the Northern Hemisphere since the mind of the historian runneth not to the contrary.

But it has not always been a happy occasion. There has been a curious mixture of harmony and discord about it.

The boys and girls of all ages who used to twine leaves in their hair and sing their way to bliss on May Day— the sweet young things who paraded sedately through symbolic rites that would have crimsoned their faces if they had understood them—all the queens of the May and all who went a-Maying in any way whatsoever could not prevail against the anarchists, criminal syndicalists, the "Wobblies," or the cutthroats of England whose blood-letting in the early 16th century gave rise to the phrase "Evil May Day," still heard in the Old World.

There always has been this May Day struggle between good and evil. The English made May Day the anniversary of Robin Hood's death and converted their exuberance into a celebration of the love affair between their favorite scoundrel and Maid Marian. The French, meanwhile, turned it into an occasion for shooting at one another from behind barricades.

All the Old World notions about May Day came to America. The good ones were offset by the bad ones, and the whole thing is still in a ferment. The latest addition to the choices in America for celebrating May Day is its designation by presidential proclamation as "Law Day," commemorating the importance of law as against the lawlessness that others prefer to commemorate.

It is almost with apology for innocence and absence of social purpose that a few of us still do nothing more purposeful on May Day than take a "May walk" in search of dogwood blooms.

SOVIET RULES FOR A SUMMIT MEETING

1. A meeting at summit may be held whenever Russia decides there is a quorum. Any two members shall constitute a quorum.

2. The use of mirrors by Russia in establishing a quorum is legitimate.

3. Meetings must be conducted in accord with the Moscow position that there "is no business like NO business."

4. There can be no inquiries, "What's the score?" The U.S.S.R. will announce the score before each inning.

5. The purpose of a summit session shall be to get the top men of top nations into a stratospheric demonstration of Soviet propaganda methods and the use of doubletalk high above sea levels.

6. Premier Khrushchev shall be permitted to use that side of the mountain which has no ice. Alpenstocks and ropes shall be marked "Reserved For U.S.S.R."

7. Yodeling shall be in Russian only. All attempts to yodel by the free world shall be considered capitalistic.

8. The U.S.S.R. shall have the right to establish sniping stations on the summit at points of their own choosing. Sniping crews shall include ballet directors. The free world delegates shall protest only through boy pianists. This shall be classified as establishing cultural relationships.

9. Representatives of U.S.S.R. and staff members shall be listed as peace-loving crusaders for brotherly love, better understandings and world accord. Those of the free world shall be listed as crude warmongers.

10. An agenda may be adopted on the way down the slope, but not up. The other way around would mean possible progress.

11. In West Berlin decisions a tie may be broken by radio from Red China. A three to one vote against U.S.S.R. shall be considered a tie.

The Odds Are Against A Knockout

Kennedy Probe Nears End

By Victor Riesel

You won't find the news in the "situations wanted" listings. The story will be further up front in your paper. Soon there will be one crusader "at liberty." He will not have difficulty finding "work", for he is Robert Kennedy, specialist in corruption flushing — and courage.

Victor Riesel

This young man with the hand of velvet in a glove of iron will be "at liberty" virtually as soon as his brother Jack's labor rackets control bill becomes law. That should be in 90 days or so. Once there is a law, there will be no need for Sen. John McClellan's racket-busting committee. Officially, technically and legislatively — that is.

Already chief counsel Kennedy and the staff he has woven about him since early '57 are preparing their files for the interment which must come to all congressional investigations. The Senate's will has been served. The dossiers bulging with the records of the despicable defiant ones will soon head for the warehouse.

OF THIS CAST of characters—what of the most dramatic of them all, James Riddle Hoffa?

There will be two or three other probes in the comparatively few days remaining to the committee but it will be on a symbolic dialogue between Hoffa and Kennedy that the final curtain will drop.

And into what will Hoffa stride as he leaves McClellan, Kennedy and the witness chair for the last time?

Not into peace but into the sword by which he has been living.

First, he must really rebuild his own organization. True, the teamsters regionally always are powerful. But Hoffa's national office is not as solid as its marble facade makes it seem.

To paraphrase Plato, he is in the early days of his power, he is full of smiles and he salutes everyone he meets. But inside the counting house Hoffa knows that money is real tight.

HE HAS SPENT millions on organizing, legal defense and public relations— but the net count is an increase of only some 3,000 new members. So tight is actual income that Hoffa recently had to turn down his own friends in New York when they asked for money long promised by his national office.

The New York Teamsters for well over a year had a special organizing committee. Their national headquarters promised to match dollar for dollar any amount the New York Joint Council 16 raised. The big town truck drivers got up $106,000. For a long year they waited for Hoffa to reach into that much publicized 40-million-dollars treasury. Finally he said definitely, no. So on April 14, the New York organizing committee dissolved itself, gave up its drive and returned the money it had collected to the locals.

Point is that the Teamster national treasury is not tied up in cash. It is in securities, long term ones and it would be unwise to sell and dig into capital.

Nor will the drain on the expenditures be slowed by the rackets committee end. Hoffa still must face the monitors and long court action.

MONITOR CHAIRMAN Martin O'Donoghue, who can match muscle toughness with moral toughness, wants Hoffa tried eventually by the Teamsters high counsel itself. O'Donoghue has more than 100 exhibits of what he refers to as Hoffa's violations. The monitors hope to develop enough during this "trial" to go into federal court to ask for Jimmy's removal from the provisional presidency.

There are those who say that Hoffa will survive all this and stay on as president. Could well be. But there is one thing he can never escape—Bob Kennedy has put Jim Hoffa under glass. Today there is a Washington Grand Jury peering into every corner of his life. There will always be Treasury agents.

Word is that in Texas soon the Justice Dept.'s Anti-Trust Division will bring in indictments of some of his aides. Wherever Jimmy Hoffa turns, there will always be an agent of some sort.

Hoffa will learn to live with it. But it won't be easy. That much he'll discover.

No Forbidden Fruit

By Truman Twill

In some families, all the bric-a-brac is moved beyond the reach of the children to keep them from smashing it. In other families, the children are taught to keep their hands off the bric-a-brac.

In some families, things that are bad for the kids must be hidden or kept under lock and key. In other families, the kids are encouraged to know what is bad for them and to stay clear of it.

In some families, all kinds of things are forbidden, which has the effect of making them seem more desirable, like forbidden fruit.

In other families, things are permitted, which has the effect of taking the shine off things that are made shiny only by being forbidden — made to seem more attractive than they would be in the ordinary course of events.

All of which leads up to the fact that "Lady Chatterly's Lover," a book once made notorious by those who said it was obscene, is about to be given another printing run for its publisher's money.

The question is whether D. H. Lawrence's gamey novel will excite as violent a reaction this time as it did 30 years ago.

Without mentioning any books by name, any novel reader who keeps pace knows that "Lady Chatterly's Lover" is in danger of seeming tame by comparison with some of the stuff lately in circulation.

But here is an interesting thing I had not thought about until the news was sent out about "Lady Chatterly's Lover."

I never read it.

I never read any of the other racy ones, though all of them have been within easy reach. It never occurred to me they would be interesting. There always was something else that promised to be more enjoyable, not necessarily a book, just something else, like a play on television.

I do not held it against others for reading racy books. Other members of my household read them, enjoy them and seem none the worse for the experience. Nor do I claim any credit for not reading them. Quite the contrary, I am ashamed to admit I could have picked any of them up at any time and qualified for membership in the discussion groups that talk about whatever book is going around.

It is my fault for being left out of it.

When "Lady Chatterley's Lover" finds its way into our lean-to, as it very likely will, I do not expect cataclysmic results. The younger members of the household, indefatigable readers, probably will not give it a tumble.

One of the purplest books of its time lay face up on a table in our living room for weeks without getting a tumble from our offspring, though his best friend had told him all about it.

What I am trying to get at here, in a mildly offensive way, is that nothing cools off fascination like availability. It's as obvious as those soap panics we sheep used to go into during rationing whenever someone started a rumor that soap was going to be scarce. Suddenly, everybody got soap-happy.

My notion of the way to take the zing out of purple literature in this country is to make it available and make other things more attractive. And even if the purple stuff is attractive, it doesn't seem to do any permanent harm. Does it?

Our youngsters play on the sidewalks and many are school children who have to cross the street at Putnam St.

The traffic light at Putnam St. serves little purpose. The motorists do stop (when they are able) after screeching their brakes and scaring all the parents half to death for fear one of their children has been hit.

So, we the mothers, would like to have a cruiser patrol this area to protect our children.

We feel sure these views are shared by all the other mothers living on this street.

Western Allies 'Leak' Strategy At Paris

PARIS

What a familiar paradox — 50 reporters unsuccessfully pressing an American government spokesman to tell them what the Western Allies plan to agree to at the forthcoming Geneva Conference, while a French afternoon newspaper prints the details of the so - called "Package plan" which is to be offered to the Soviets.

David Lawrence

Forty years ago it was much the same. This correspondent then watched the American delegation keep faith on the secrecy rule while the British and French "briefed" their own newsmen at that time on important news developments at the Paris Peace Conference. It did not matter then, because the enemy was not to be present anyhow at the "summit" conference in Paris and everything agreed upon by the Allies was to be submitted to the defeated adversary to be signed later on the dotted line.

But today the "enemy" is very much in evidence. The Communists, of course, have plenty of stooges in Paris nowadays but they only have to read the French Press to get vital information before the negotiations start.

NOTWITHSTANDING these handicaps, it is apparent that Secretary of State Herter is standing firmly on a broad plan that offers the Soviets a palatable program—if they are in a conciliatory mood—but one that does not alter the substance of things. Thus, the idea now is to present a three-step plan—described in some detail by the French press — with the ultimate purpose of establishing a unified Germany through free elections. When former Secretary Dulles recently abandoned temporarily the concept of free elections as a requisite to discussions with the Soviets, it did not mean that the United States was giving up the proposal altogether. It took a little while to reassure the West German government on this point. But now all is fully understood in Bonn.

The program now, in the first stage, is to issue a number of declarations of a "non-aggression" character, along with the establishment of two committees. One would be a permanent four-power committee to discuss European security and the other would be an East - West German committee or "council" to discuss continuing contacts between the two rival German governments and to draft an electoral law.

This "council" would not be created unless the Soviets accepted from the outset the proposal that within a stated period — probably five or six years — free elections would be held to unify Germany.

The second stage would provide a system of control of forces and armament in a "zone" as large as possible in Europe, preferably from the Atlantic to the Ural Mountains.

The third stage would be a reunification of Germany by free elections, which would be followed by a "free choice" by Germany as between an alliance with the North Atlantic Treaty Organization and a position of "neutrality."

The German choice would determine the kind of permanent security structure that would be established in Europe. Only in this stage would there be a limitation or a ceiling on armed forces and on armaments in general. Berlin would meanwhile be kept in its existing status until the third stage had been accomplished, when it would become the capital of a reunified Germany.

THE AMERICAN spokesman naturally was inhibited today from saying how much of the French newspaper article was accurate but it is assumed generally here that it covers the substance of what was discussed by the foreign ministers.

The information that was officially divulged by the American delegation here was confined to the statement that very few differences appeared between the Western foreign ministers and that they were agreed upon a general approach to be made at the Geneva meeting on May 11. There is indeed a very pleasant feeling between the Western governments.

Even the stupid remarks on an American television program by Viscount Montgomery, who managed to insult the United States and its present leaders in a dozen ways, are not likely to spoil the friendly relations which exist between the governments of the United States and Great Britain.

Maybe the eccentric Britisher, who now is trying to make headlines by his talks with Khrushchev in Moscow, will realize the big blunder he has made when he reads the scathing denunciation of his television interview by all sections of the British press.

But it is precisely the belief, engendered by such things as the Montgomery episode, that the Western Allies are not united or have no confidence in each other which encourages the Kremlin to think it can disregard the Allied proposals in the coming negotiations.

OF COURSE, Moscow would like to have in advance the details of the Western proposals and it is too bad that the Allies do not really observe a secrecy rule before a big conference is held.

What the Western diplomats and attaches ought to do perhaps is to consult John L. Lewis, Walter Reuther and David McDonald about the techniques of hard-boiled negotiating. None of them ever tells in advance what his price happens to be and how long he will maintain a strike or threat of a strike.

The Western governments need to get more hard-boiled about keeping their own counsels prior to a negotiation. The Communists naturally want the Western press to tell them each day what has happened, so that it will be easier to demolish the Allied arguments at the Geneva conference.

Harmony By Necessity

By James Marlow

WASHINGTON

There has been an unsurprising burst of harmony on both sides of the Iron Curtain.

Western diplomats in Paris Thursday, preparing to meet the Soviets May 11 in Geneva, proclaimed full agreement among themselves on what they will talk about.

Earlier this week the Soviets and their European satellites met in Warsaw and proclaimed full agreement on their side.

The trouble with both displays of harmony:

1. The thoroughly cowed Soviet satellites could hardly do anything else but agree with whatever the Soviets want to say or demand at Geneva. So this harmony was window-dressing.

2. The Western diplomats — the foreign ministers of the United States, Britain, France and West Germany — could hardly afford not to show at least an outward sign of unity before the meeting with Gromyko.

Since the Westerners have been split for months on how to handle the Soviets, this sudden manifestation of sweet reasonableness and agreements may have a large element of window-dressing in it too.

The whole thing started last Nov. 27 when Premier Nikita Khrushchev gave the Allies six months — that would make the deadline May 27 — to get their troops out of Berlin.

He also wanted peace treaties signed with East and West Germany. But West Germany is linked with the Allies; the Allies would like to see all Germany linked with them; and therefore they have called for a united Germany.

Since in any free elections the West Germans doubly outnumber the East Germans, the result would be a united Germany that was pro-West. Khrushchev has said he would never let Communist East Germany get away.

All this adds up to a handsome set of difficulties in any negotiations between the West and the Soviet Union.

Western diplomats at Paris announced they had agreed on a package plan including these points:

Allied determination to stay put in Berlin until reunification between East and West Germany is achieved and a plan for controls, inspection and limitation of armaments in central Europe is worked out.

What isn't known is what the Allies will settle for — if anything — if the Soviets reject the package plan and insist that the Allies get out of Berlin.

So far the Allies have been on the defensive, put there by Khrushchev's November demands. And so far they haven't been able to think up anything to put him on the defensive. Up to now, therefore, the advantage has been all his.

Since the Geneva meeting later this month is supposed to be a preliminary and stage-setter for a summit meeting later, quite possibly both sides, while agreeing on nothing, will be on their good behavior.

A summit meeting would seem impossible if the foreign ministers at Geneva began the usual East-West program of mutual recriminations and denunciations.

Catharine Parr, his last wife, was the only one of Henry VIII's six wives to outlive him.

There always has been this May Day struggle between good and evil. The English made May Day the anniversary of Robin Hood's death and converted their exuberance into a celebration of the love affair between their favorite scoundrel and Maid Marian. The French, meanwhile, turned it into an occasion for shooting at one another from behind barricades.

All the Old World notions about May Day came to America. The good ones were offset by the bad ones, and the whole thing is still in a ferment. The latest addition to the choices in America for celebrating May Day is its designation by presidential proclamation as "Law Day," commemorating the importance of law as against the lawlessness that others prefer to commemorate.

It is almost with apology for innocence and absence of social purpose that a few of us still do nothing more purposeful on May Day than take a "May walk" in search of dogwood blooms.

The Once Over

SOVIET RULES FOR A SUMMIT MEETING

1. A meeting at summit may be held whenever Russia decides there is a quorum. Any two members shall constitute a quorum.

2. The use of mirrors by Russia in establishing a quorum is legitimate.

3. Meetings must be conducted in accord with the Moscow position that there "is no business like NO business."

4. There can be no inquiries, "What's the score?" The U.S.S.R. will announce the score before each inning.

5. The purpose of a summit session shall be to get the top men of top nations into a stratospheric demonstration of Soviet propaganda methods and the use of doubletalk high above sea levels.

6. Premier Khrushchev shall be permitted to use that side of the mountain which has no ice. Alpenstocks and ropes shall be marked "Reserved For U.S.S.R."

7. Yodeling shall be in Russian only. All attempts to yodel by the free world shall be considered capitalistic.

8. The U.S.S.R. shall have the right to establish sniping stations on the summit at points of their own choosing. Sniping crews shall include ballet directors. The free world delegates shall protest only through boy pianists. This shall be classified as establishing cultural relationships.

9. Representatives of U.S.S.R. and staff members shall be listed as peace-loving crusaders for brotherly love, better understandings and world accord. Those of the free world shall be listed as crude warmongers.

10. An agenda may be adopted on the way down the slope, but not up. The other way around would mean possible progress.

11. In West Berlin decisions a tie may be broken by radio from Red China. A three to one vote against U.S.S.R. shall be considered a tie.

Uncle Sam, wondering about Fidel Castro: "What will he get for an encore?" Castro is one of the few successful revolutionists and public idols in history who ever acted as if trying to bring back old time vaudeville.

Army is stuck with 87 million dollars worth of webbing. Can't it be used for nets for buyers of $2 common stocks, displaced ambassadors and generals who bump GIs off planes?

Strange but healthy fact is that plenty of Yankee fans got kick out of recent defeats. Runaway starts are not too popular and few cash customers relish one-sided sport. There is also a widespread feeling that Stengel worries too much, overplays his wizardry routines and yanks pitchers too often for slight lapses.

Ex-Cuban general and family hijacked passenger plane and landed it at Key West, using guns hidden in clothes of women. Movie folks are squawking that customers who used to go to "westerns" are now just boarding airplanes. (Fasten your jitters; we're coming in by pistol!)

Have you heard about the austerity program orator who was hurt falling out of both his Cadillacs at once?

Odd Facts

The custom of having a best man at a wedding is believed to have originated in the primitive marriage by capture. When a man seized a woman and carried her away by force, he would choose a faithful friend or follower to accompany them and ward off any attacks by the girl's kinsmen.

The number of adults attending church in the United States has increased about nine million during the last five years and upwards of 13 million during the last 16 years.

The Odds Are Against A Knockout

Kennedy Probe Nears End

By Victor Riesel

You won't find the news in the "situations wanted" listings. The story will be further up front in your paper. Soon there will be one crusader "at liberty." He will not have difficulty finding "work", for he is Robert Kennedy, specialist in corruption flushing — and courage.

Victor Riesel

This young man with the hand of velvet in a glove of iron will be "at liberty" virtually as soon as his brother Jack's labor rackets control bill becomes law. That should be in 90 days or so. Once there is a law, there will be no need for Sen. John McClellan's racket-busting committee. Officially, technically and legislatively — that is.

Already chief counsel Kennedy and the staff he has woven about him since early '57 are preparing their files for the interment which must come to all congressional investigations. The Senate's will has been served. The dossiers bulging with the records of the despicable defiant ones will soon head for the warehouse.

OF THIS CAST of characters—what of the most dramatic of them all, James Riddle Hoffa?

There will be two or three other probes in the comparatively few days remaining to the committee but it will be on a symbolic dialogue between Hoffa and Kennedy that the final curtain will drop.

And into what will Hoffa stride as he leaves McClellan, Kennedy and the witness chair for the last time?

Not into peace but into the sword by which he has been living.

First, he must really rebuild his own organization. True, the teamsters regionally always are powerful. But Hoffa's national office is not as solid as its marble facade makes it seem.

To paraphrase Plato, he is in the early days of his power, he is full of smiles and he salutes everyone he meets. But inside the counting house Hoffa knows that money is real tight.

HE HAS SPENT millions on organizing, legal defense and public relations— but the net count is an increase of only some 3,000 new members. So tight is actual income that Hoffa recently had to turn down his own friends in New York when they asked for money long promised by his national office.

The New York Teamsters for well over a year had a special organizing committee. Their national headquarters promised to match dollar for dollar any amount the New York Joint Council 16 raised. The big town truck drivers got up $106,000. For a long year they waited for Hoffa to reach into that much publicized 40-million-dollars treasury. Finally he said definitely, no. So on April 14, the New York organizing committee dissolved itself, gave up its drive and returned the money it had collected to the locals.

Point is that the Teamster national treasury is not tied up in cash. It is in securities, long term ones and it would be unwise to sell and dig into capital.

Nor will the drain on the expenditures be slowed by the rackets committee end. Hoffa still must face the monitors and long court action.

MONITOR CHAIRMAN Martin O'Donoghue, who can match muscle toughness with moral toughness, wants Hoffa tried eventually by the Teamsters high counsel itself. O'Donoghue has more than 100 exhibits of what he refers to as Hoffa's violations. The monitors hope to develop enough during this "trial" to go into federal court to ask for Jimmy's removal from the provisional presidency.

There are those who say that Hoffa will survive all this and stay on as president. Could well be. But there is one thing he can never escape—Bob Kennedy has put Jim Hoffa under glass. Today there is a Washington Grand Jury peering into every corner of his life. There will always be Treasury agents.

Word is that in Texas soon the Justice Dept.'s Anti-Trust Division will bring in indictments of some of his aides. Wherever Jimmy Hoffa turns, there will always be an agent of some sort.

Hoffa will learn to live with it. But it won't be easy. That much he'll discover.

No Forbidden Fruit

By Truman Twill

In some families, all the bric-a-brac is moved beyond the reach of the children to keep them from smashing it. In other families, the children are taught to keep their hands off the bric-a-brac.

In some families, things that are bad for the kids must be hidden or kept under lock and key. In other families, the kids are encouraged to know what is bad for them and to stay clear of it.

In some families, all kinds of things are forbidden, which has the effect of making them seem more desirable, like forbidden fruit.

In other families, things are permitted, which has the effect of taking the shine off things that are made shiny only by being forbidden — made to seem more attractive than they would be in the ordinary course of events.

All of which leads up to the fact that "Lady Chatterly's Lover," a book once made notorious by those who said it was obscene, is about to be given another printing run for its publisher's money.

The question is whether D. H. Lawrence's gamey novel will excite as violent a reaction this time as it did 30 years ago.

Without mentioning any books by name, any novel reader who keeps pace knows that "Lady Chatterly's Lover" is in danger of seeming tame by comparison with some of the stuff lately in circulation.

But here is an interesting thing I had not thought about until the news was sent out about "Lady Chatterly's Lover."

I never read it.

I never read any of the other racy ones, though all of them have been within easy reach. It never occurred to me they would be interesting. There always was something else that promised to be more enjoyable, not necessarily a book, just something else, like a play on television.

I do not held it against others for reading racy books. Other members of my household read them, enjoy them and seem none the worse for the experience. Nor do I claim any credit for not reading them. Quite the contrary, I am ashamed to admit I could have picked any of them up at any time and qualified for membership in the discussion groups that talk about whatever book is going around.

It is my fault for being left out of it.

When "Lady Chatterley's Lover" finds its way into our lean-to, as it very likely will, I do not expect cataclysmic results. The younger members of the household, indefatigable readers, probably will not give it a tumble.

One of the purplest books of its time lay face up on a table in our living room for weeks without getting a tumble from our offspring, though his best friend had told him all about it.

What I am trying to get at here, in a mildly offensive way, is that nothing cools off fascination like availability. It's as obvious as those soap panics we sheep used to go into during rationing whenever someone started a rumor that soap was going to be scarce. Suddenly, everybody got soap-happy.

My notion of the way to take the zing out of purple literature in this country is to make it available and make other things more attractive. And even if the purple stuff is attractive, it doesn't seem to do any permanent harm. Does it?

THIRTY YEARS AGO — The resignation of Miss Bertha Miller, superintendent of City Hospital for more than eight years, was received by Charles B. Boyce, president of the Board of Trustees.

Dr. A. C. Frost announced his candidacy for the Republican nomination for mayor at the August primaries.

TWENTY YEARS AGO — The proposal of the Steubenville, East Liverpool and Beaver Valley Traction Co. to abandon steetcar service between East Liverpool and Wellsville was placed officially before the Wellsville Council.

Fifty - seven adults and children were examined during the Chest Clinic at the Wellsville American Legion Home under auspices of the Columbiana County Public Health League.

TEN YEARS AGO — Services marking the first anniversary of the new state of Israel were conducted at the B'nai Jacob Synagogue.

About $500 was cleared during a benefit concert by three bands and two orchestras of East Liverpool school students.

Principal R. W. Betts announced Catherine Anne Wright as valedictorian and Miss Ann D. Allison as salutatorian for the graduating seniors.

Letter To Editor

We are residents of Harvey Ave. and would like to make a plea for motorists to slow down.

Our youngsters play on the sidewalks and many are school children who have to cross the street at Putnam St.

The traffic light at Putnam St. serves little purpose. The motorists do stop (when they are able) after screeching their brakes and scaring all the parents half to death for fear one of their children has been hit.

So, we the mothers, would like to have a cruiser patrol this area to protect our children.

We feel sure these views are shared by all the other mothers living on this street.

Summit's Rocky Road

Western Allies 'Leak' Strategy At Paris

PARIS

What a familiar paradox — 50 reporters unsuccessfully pressing an American government spokesman to tell them what the Western Allies plan to agree to at the forthcoming Geneva Conference, while a French afternoon newspaper prints the details of the so-called "Package plan" which is to be offered to the Soviets.

David Lawrence

Forty years ago it was much the same. This correspondent then watched the American delegation keep faith on the secrecy rule while the British and French "briefed" their own newsmen at that time on important news developments at the Paris Peace Conference. It did not matter then, because the enemy was not to be present anyhow at the "summit" conference in Paris and everything agreed upon by the Allies was to be submitted to the defeated adversary to be signed later on the dotted line.

But today the "enemy" is very much in evidence. The Communists, of course, have plenty of stooges in Paris nowadays but they only have to read the French Press to get vital information before the negotiations start.

NOTWITHSTANDING these handicaps, it is apparent that Secretary of State Herter is standing firmly on a broad plan that offers the Soviets a palatable program—if they are in a conciliatory mood—but one that does not alter the substance of things. Thus, the idea now is to present a three-step plan—described in some detail by the French press — with the ultimate purpose of establishing a unified Germany through free elections. When former Secretary Dulles recently abandoned temporarily the concept of free elections as a requisite to discussions with the Soviets, it did not mean that the United States was giving up the proposal altogether. It took a little while to reassure the West German government on this point. But now all is fully understood in Bonn.

The program now, in the first stage, is to issue a number of declarations of a "non-aggression" character, along with the establishment of two committees. One would be a permanent four-power committee to discuss European security and the other would be an East - West German committee or "council" to discuss continuing contacts between the two rival German governments and to draft an electoral law.

This "council" would not be created unless the Soviets accepted from the outset the proposal that within a stated period — probably five or six years — free elections would be held to unify Germany.

The second stage would provide a system of control of forces and armament in a "zone" as large as possible in Europe, preferably from the Atlantic to the Ural Mountains.

The third stage would be a reunification of Germany by free elections, which would be followed by a "free choice" by Germany as between an alliance with the North Atlantic Treaty Organization and a position of "neutrality."

The German choice would determine the kind of permanent security structure that would be established in Europe. Only in this stage would there be a limitation or a ceiling on armed forces and on armaments in general. Berlin would meanwhile be kept in its existing status until the third stage had been accomplished, when it would become the capital of a reunified Germany.

THE AMERICAN spokesman naturally was inhibited today from saying how much of the French newspaper article was accurate but it is assumed generally here that it covers the substance of what was discussed by the foreign ministers.

The information that was officially divulged by the American delegation here was confined to the statement that very few differences appeared between the Western foreign ministers and that they were agreed upon a general approach to be made at the Geneva meeting on May 11. There is indeed a very pleasant feeling between the Western governments.

Even the stupid remarks on an American television program by Viscount Montgomery, who managed to insult the United States and its present leaders in a dozen ways, are not likely to spoil the friendly relations which exist between the governments of the United States and Great Britain.

Maybe the eccentric Britisher, who now is trying to make headlines by his talks with Khrushchev in Moscow, will realize the big blunder he has made when he reads the scathing denunciation of his television interview by all sections of the British press.

But it is precisely the belief, engendered by such things as the Montgomery episode, that the Western Allies are not united or have no confidence in each other which encourages the Kremlin to think it can disregard the Allied proposals in the coming negotiations.

OF COURSE, Moscow would like to have in advance the details of the Western proposals and it is too bad that the Allies do not really observe a secrecy rule before a big conference is held.

What the Western diplomats and attaches ought to do perhaps is to consult John L. Lewis, Walter Reuther and David McDonald about the techniques of hard-boiled negotiating. None of them ever tells in advance what his price happens to be and how long he will maintain a strike or threat of a strike.

The Western governments need to get more hard-boiled about keeping their own counsels prior to a negotiation. The Communists naturally want the Western press to tell them each day what has happened, so that it will be easier to demolish the Allied arguments at the Geneva conference.

Harmony By Necessity

By James Marlow

WASHINGTON

There has been an unsurprising burst of harmony on both sides of the Iron Curtain.

Western diplomats in Paris Thursday, preparing to meet the Soviets May 11 in Geneva, proclaimed full agreement among themselves on what they will talk about.

Earlier this week the Soviets and their European satellites met in Warsaw and proclaimed full agreement on their side.

The trouble with both displays of harmony:

1. The thoroughly cowed Soviet satellites could hardly do anything else but agree with whatever the Soviets want to say or demand at Geneva. So this harmony was window-dressing.

2. The Western diplomats — the foreign ministers of the United States, Britain, France and West Germany — could hardly afford not to show at least an outward sign of unity before the meeting with Gromyko.

Since the Westerners have been split for months on how to handle the Soviets, this sudden manifestation of sweet reasonableness and agreements may have a large element of window-dressing in it too.

The whole thing started last Nov. 27 when Premier Nikita Khrushchev gave the Allies six months — that would make the deadline May 27 — to get their troops out of Berlin.

He also wanted peace treaties signed with East and West Germany. But West Germany is linked with the Allies; the Allies would like to see all Germany linked with them; and therefore they have called for a united Germany.

Since in any free elections the West Germans doubly outnumber the East Germans, the result would be a united Germany that was pro-West. Khrushchev has said he would never let Communist East Germany get away.

All this adds up to a handsome set of difficulties in any negotiations between the West and the Soviet Union.

Western diplomats at Paris announced they had agreed on a package plan including these points:

Allied determination to stay put in Berlin until reunification between East and West Germany is achieved and a plan for controls, inspection and limitation of armaments in central Europe is worked out.

What isn't known is what the Allies will settle for — if anything — if the Soviets reject the package plan and insist that the Allies get out of Berlin.

So far the Allies have been on the defensive, put there by Khrushchev's November demands. And so far they haven't been able to think up anything to put him on the defensive. Up to now, therefore, the advantage has been all his.

Since the Geneva meeting later this month is supposed to be a preliminary and stage-setter for a summit meeting later, quite possibly both sides, while agreeing on nothing, will be on their good behavior.

A summit meeting would seem impossible if the foreign ministers at Geneva began the usual East-West program of mutual recriminations and denunciations.

DEAR VOTERS:

Why is City Council giving away our VALUABLE RIVER FRONT. With the opening of the St. Lawrence Seaway, the Lake to River Highway and the new freeway.

The future of our city lies on the Ohio River.

I suggest council examine the whole problem of our river front, and do not give away property that should be used for the good of the city.

New Polling Centers Found

Voting Machines Found Too Heavy For Home Use

EAST PALESTINE — Six new polling places were selected hurriedly Thursday when officials found the 980-pound voting machines to be used in Tuesday's primary were too heavy for use in private homes where polls previously were located. Two former poll sites were retained.

The new sites have either concrete or reinforced floors on which the machines can rest safely. City Auditor George Archibald, along with Henry Keck, hauling contractor, spent yesterday working out the precinct voting sites after it was discovered the floors of private homes were not strong enough.

At the home of Mrs. Alice Kirtley of E. North Ave., a machine was placed in a sunroom where the floor began to sag, and the equipment was removed.

Plans also call for the machines to be kept at the polling places for use in the November general election for the second trial of such voting equipment here and at Lisbon. One official indicated it would be awkward for a homeowner to have the large machine in his home for six months.

The polls for Tuesday's election are:

First Ward: 1-A and 2-A, both at the Pike Motors Co. building at 157 E. Martin St., a new location.

Second Ward: 2-A, the Russell Harvey storeroom at 484 E. Main St., a new site, and 2-B — the Old City Hall, the same as last year.

Third Ward: 3-A — the Maxwell Decorating Shop, 385 Park Ave., a new site, and 3-B — the basement of the Knights of Columbus Hall. The poll was previously on the first floor.

Fourth Ward: 4-A — the William Lalley Dairy Store, 719 W. Martin St., a new site, and 4-B — the Evangelical United Brethren Church of West and W. Martin St., the same as before.

Voting Machines Found Too Heavy For Home Use

EAST PALESTINE — Six new polling places were selected hurriedly Thursday when officials found the 980-pound voting machines to be used in Tuesday's primary were too heavy for use in private homes where polls previously were located. Two former poll sites were retained.

The new sites have either concrete or reinforced floors on which the machines can rest safely. City Auditor George Archibald, along with Henry Keck, hauling contractor, spent yesterday working out the precinct voting sites after it was discovered the floors of private homes were not strong enough.

At the home of Mrs. Alice Kirtley of E. North Ave., a machine was placed in a sunroom where the floor began to sag, and the equipment was removed.

ANSWERS YOUR PROBLEMS

Dear Ann Landers: Before we married, my wife was very close to her sister. Three years ago, her sister died. Since that time, her sister's husband has been having breakfast at our house every morning.

I leave for work about 7:15 a.m. My brother-in-law comes over about 8 a.m. I never thought too much about it for the first year because I knew how broken up he was over his wife's passing. I thought it was nice that my wife could console him.

Now I'm beginning to wonder what's going on. Last week our 10-year-old son asked me how come Uncle Bill is visiting Mommy almost every day when he comes home for lunch.

I don't know if Uncle Bill is staying on and working a later shift or if he's coming over for lunch as well as breakfast. Anyway, I think they are seeing too much of each other.

Shall I tell my wife to cut it out or should I speak to him?—A.W.H.

Dear A.W.H.: Tell your wife you know there's nothing out of the way going on between her and Bill but he'd better stop coming for breakfast and lunch. Explain that he's become emotionally dependent, on her, and it's an unhealthy situation.

Suggest she invite Bill for dinner when the rest of the family is present. And if she wants to do him a REAL favor, ask her to introduce him to some eligible women.

Four-Year-Old Genius

Dear Ann: Our little girl is 4 years old. Ever since she was able to sit up, she's enjoyed examining books. Last year she asked me what the "signs" in the books meant. I told her they were words. Soon she was able to recognize several words when she saw them in other books.

When my husband bought her a slate he opened Pandora's box. Now she pesters me all day to "explain more words." She writes on everything and reads aloud constantly.

I had to stop serving alphabet soup because she became so intrigued with the letters it took her all night to finish a bowl.

I've heard it's bad to teach children to read before they enter school but this child has practically taught herself. I don't want a genius or a quiz kid. I just want a normal child. What shall I do with her?—MRS. N.

-:-

Face facts, Mother, you have an "unusual" child, whether you like it or not. This little girl should be handled with care so her exceptional abilities are developed and channeled properly.

Write to the U. S. Government Printing Office, Washington 25, D.C. Ask for the booklet on "The Gifted Child." You will find it informative and helpful.

The Cats Away

Dear Ann: My first cousin is a wonderful guy who always has been more like a brother to me. He's away at college now and I'm a high school senior. We correspond regularly.

He's very crazy about a certain girl who is in my home room. Since he left town she's been running with a fast bunch and her reputation has gone to the dogs. She was one of the group that got caught bringing spiked beer to a basketball game in plastic bottles.

He'll be home in six weeks. I'm afraid if I don't tell him he'll hear from someone else and think I let him down. On the other hand, I hate to be the one to give him this sort of news. What is your advice?—LOTTIE.

-:-

Dear Lottie: Don't be the bearer of these "glad tidings." He won't think you let him down. He'll appreciate your not trying to do a hatchet job on the girl. Far better for everyone concerned if he comes home and learns first-hand.

New Bike Tag Sale To Begin

Sale of 1959 bicycle licenses will begin Saturday at the "Meter Maid" office in the main corridor at City Hall, Police Chief Americo Radeschi said today.

The miniature yellow and black tags cost 25 cents, enough to cover the purchase price from the manufacturer. With the plate goes a metal seal with which it can be attached to the bicycle fender. Once attached, the plate cannot be removed without breaking the seal.

First launched about 10 years ago, the annual licensing program is designed mainly to provide a record system through which police can locate the owners of stolen or lost bicycles, the chief explained.

The registration form carries the owner's name and address and a full description of the bicycle—including the frame number—so that a wheel can be traced quickly.

The licenses may be purchased daily from 9 a. m. to 5 p. m. at the "Meter Maid" office, the chief said. The deadline for displaying a new plate is May 31.

The chief emphasized that youngsters must take with them the information required on the application form or the license cannot be issued.

Most important are the frame number — generally found underneath the sprocket — and the manufacturer's name, he said. The form also calls for the bicycle's basic color and trim, the size of the wheels, the material from which the rims is made, the type of coaster brake and a list of any extra equipment such as a horn, light or speedometer. The trade name of the seat also must be specified, the chief said.

The applicant must specify if the frame is a single bar, double bar or girl's model. For the rims, he must specify if they are chrome plated or painted metal or wood.

School Administrators' Roundtable Attracts 40

LISBON — Forty administrators and their wives attended the Columbiana County School Administrators' round-table meeting Wednesday evening at Franklin Township school in Summittville.

Rollie Collins, executive director of the Industrial Information Institute at Youngstown, spoke on surveys made by his firm and by Kent State University for the Shenango Valley. He said the surveys showed that 15 per cent of students want to work in industry and 85 in professions, yet in Youngstown and vicinity the ratio is 65 per cent in industry and 35 per cent for professions. He said there were 80,000 choices of jobs.

The group attended a public dinner at the Bethesda Presbyterian Church before the round-table.

Kaycee Event To Attract 150

About 150 are expected at a dinner of Cardinal Mercier Assembly, Fourth Degree Knights of Columbus, Sunday at 6 p. m. in Immaculate Conception School Hall at Wellsville, honoring Fr. William J. Lawler, pastor of Immaculate Conception Church and former faithful friar of the assembly.

The event also will mark the 31st anniversary of the assembly. The program will stress a patriotic theme, as patriotism is the principle of the Fourth Degree Knights.

A priest for 21 years, Fr. Lawler on April 9 marked his fifth year of service to the Wellsville church. He is chaplain of the Wellsville Kaycee council. Principal speaker will be Fr. Glenn Holdbrook, rector of St. Columba Cathedral at Youngstown.

Others on the program include Fr. Arthur Nist of St. Ann Church, faithful friar of the assembly; Fr. Homer G. Oliver of St. Patrick's Church at Salineville; John E. Johnston, Eastern Ohio district master, and James McGowan, district deputy. Fred Baldasarre of Wellsville will be toastmaster. Frank R. O'Hanlon, faithful navigator, will preside.

Columbiana County Deanery, Chester and Youngstown area priests will be among the guests, who also will include members of the Wellsville parish and members of district Kaycee councils and their friends. New Bike Tag Sale To Begin

Sale of 1959 bicycle licenses will begin Saturday at the "Meter Maid" office in the main corridor at City Hall, Police Chief Americo Radeschi said today.

The miniature yellow and black tags cost 25 cents, enough to cover the purchase price from the manufacturer. With the plate goes a metal seal with which it can be attached to the bicycle fender. Once attached, the plate cannot be removed without breaking the seal.

First launched about 10 years ago, the annual licensing program is designed mainly to provide a record system through which police can locate the owners of stolen or lost bicycles, the chief explained.

The registration form carries the owner's name and address and a full description of the bicycle—including the frame number—so that a wheel can be traced quickly.

The licenses may be purchased daily from 9 a. m. to 5 p. m. at the "Meter Maid" office, the chief said. The deadline for displaying a new plate is May 31.

The chief emphasized that youngsters must take with them the information required on the application form or the license cannot be issued.

Most important are the frame number — generally found underneath the sprocket — and the manufacturer's name, he said. The form also calls for the bicycle's basic color and trim, the size of the wheels, the material from which the rims is made, the type of coaster brake and a list of any extra equipment such as a horn, light or speedometer. The trade name of the seat also must be specified, the chief said.

The applicant must specify if the frame is a single bar, double bar or girl's model. For the rims, he must specify if they are chrome plated or painted metal or wood.

School Administrators' Roundtable Attracts 40

LISBON — Forty administrators and their wives attended the Columbiana County School Administrators' round-table meeting Wednesday evening at Franklin Township school in Summittville.

Rollie Collins, executive director of the Industrial Information Institute at Youngstown, spoke on surveys made by his firm and by Kent State University for the Shenango Valley. He said the surveys showed that 15 per cent of students want to work in industry and 85 in professions, yet in Youngstown and vicinity the ratio is 65 per cent in industry and 35 per cent for professions. He said there were 80,000 choices of jobs.

The group attended a public dinner at the Bethesda Presbyterian Church before the round-table.

Kaycee Event To Attract 150

About 150 are expected at a dinner of Cardinal Mercier Assembly, Fourth Degree Knights of Columbus, Sunday at 6 p. m. in Immaculate Conception School Hall at Wellsville, honoring Fr. William J. Lawler, pastor of Immaculate Conception Church and former faithful friar of the assembly.

The event also will mark the 31st anniversary of the assembly. The program will stress a patriotic theme, as patriotism is the principle of the Fourth Degree Knights.

A priest for 21 years, Fr. Lawler on April 9 marked his fifth year of service to the Wellsville church. He is chaplain of the Wellsville Kaycee council. Principal speaker will be Fr. Glenn Holdbrook, rector of St. Columba Cathedral at Youngstown.

Others on the program include Fr. Arthur Nist of St. Ann Church, faithful friar of the assembly; Fr. Homer G. Oliver of St. Patrick's Church at Salineville; John E. Johnston, Eastern Ohio district master, and James McGowan, district deputy. Fred Baldasarre of Wellsville will be toastmaster. Frank R. O'Hanlon, faithful navigator, will preside.

Expected Warm Reception

First U.S. Vessel To Use Seaway Has Union Dispute

CHICAGO, Ill. (AP)—The flagship Santa Regina, first American vessel to use the rebuilt St. Lawrence Seaway, expected a warm reception in Chicago Thursday, but ran instead into a union dispute over its pilot.

The 460-foot Grace Lines ship was forced to lie offshore for four hours while negotiators for a new American pilots' union huddled with representatives of the vessel's owners.

The ship finally was allowed to proceed to dock and an official welcome from Mayor Richard Daley and other city officials only after the union agreed to toss the whole problem into the hands of federal mediators.

The union, the Licensed Tugmen's and Pilots' Protective Assn. insisted that one of its pilots be employed to take the 15,000-ton Regina down the Calumet River into Lake Calumet Harbor on the far South Side.

Tugboat men backed the new union.

The line maintained, however, that it already had a pilot — the one which had guided the ship through the Great Lakes.

"They were trying to make us the guinea pig," said Ted B. Westfall, executive vice president of the lines, who made the 1,250-mile voyage down the seaway from Montreal.

After the union group, headed by President Patrick Cullnan, decided to turn the issue over to mediators, the Regina proceeded the seven miles to the harbor.

Daley greeted the ship's skipper, Capt. Hawley MacDermit, and gave him a flag of the city of Chicago. Police and Fire Department bands and marching units, chilled after the four-hour wait, also hailed the Regina, largest ship ever to enter lake Calumet.

175 Attend Republican Rally Of Midland Area Candidates

Some 175 attended a meeting of Midland area Republicans with district and county candidates Wednesday evening in the Serbian National Home.

Alex Della Valle, a candidate in the primary May 19 for the Midland Board of Education, spoke on behalf of other candidates for three posts on the board.

William P. Leavelle spoke on behalf of fellow candidates seeking three posts on Borough Council.

Atty. Ralph Scalera, borough chairman and president of the area's Young Republicans Club, turned the meeting over to J. Frank Kelker, campaign chairman for the county slate endorsed by area chairmen.

He introduced county candidates, including Sam M. McCune and Russell O. Wright for county commissioner, Henry J. Albaugh for district attorney, Harry Robinson, prothonotary; Mary Gordon, treasurer; George Taylor, controller; Matt Zvonar, sheriff; Dr. John Colavincenzo, coroner; Thomas P. Murray, recorder of deeds; Sylvester Greco, registrar of wills, and Henrietta B. Anderson, clerk of courts.

Albaugh spoke briefly and touched on merits of the candidates. Atty. Eugene Rumisek, an independent candidate for district attorney, also spoke.

Harrell Bomar introduced several candidates for Industry Borough offices, including Betty Jane Brucker, School Board; Earl W. Stephenson, Council for two years, and James Muns and George Ross, Council for four years.

A buffet lunch was served. Miss Margaret Boston is secretary of the Young Republicans' Club.

To Get Wage Boost

CHARLESTON, W. Va. (AP)—The 1,300 employes of Goodyear Atomic Corp.'s atomic plant in Piketon, Ohio, will receive a 10-cent hourly wage boost as a result of a new contract signed Wednesday. Harry Drenner, district director of the Oil, Chemical and Atomic Workers International Union, which represented the workers in negotiations, said the plant's new average wage rate will be $2.79 an hour.

2 Killed, 3 Injured In U.S. 30 Accident

LIMA, Ohio (AP)—An automobile carrying five men spun out of control and into the opposite lane of traffic on U. S. 30 Thursday. Two men were killed and the other three seriously injured when a trailer-truck smashed into the car's rear end.

Dead are Frank G. Breece, 56, of Middlepoint in Van Wert County, and Frank Brendehoff, 69, of Delphos, on the Van Wert-Allen County line.

Sheriff's deputies said Ralph E. Warneke, 33, of Delphos, apparently lost control of the car when he tried to brake it.

Father Wounds Bus Driver Over Banning Of Son

MCHENRY, Ill. (AP)—A father, angry because his 7-year-old son was banned from a school bus for unruly behavior, halted the bus and shot the driver Thursday as 25 children looked on.

The driver, Victor A. Hopp, 26, and Joseph DiMaggio, 49, exchanged blows after DiMaggio curbed the bus and argued with Hopp for not allowing his son Dominic to ride the bus.

Sheriff Melvin Griebel said DiMaggio pulled a .25-caliber pistol from his pocket. His son tried to separate the two men, shouting, "Don't shoot him, Daddy. Don't shoot him." DiMaggio fired one shot at Hopp, the sheriff said.

Chief Deputy Edward Dowd said the shot, which struck Hopp in the left shoulder, above the heart, failed to knock the bus driver to the ground and he continued to exchange blows with DiMaggio. However, Dowd said, two older boys who had gotten off the bus finally broke up the fight.

DiMaggio, a salesman, was held in jail under $5,000 bond on a charge of assault with intent to murder.

Hopp was in fair condition.

Atty. Ralph Scalera, borough chairman and president of the area's Young Republicans Club, turned the meeting over to J. Frank Kelker, campaign chairman for the county slate endorsed by area chairmen.

He introduced county candidates, including Sam M. McCune and Russell O. Wright for county commissioner, Henry J. Albaugh for district attorney, Harry Robinson, prothonotary; Mary Gordon, treasurer; George Taylor, controller; Matt Zvonar, sheriff; Dr. John Colavincenzo, coroner; Thomas P. Murray, recorder of deeds; Sylvester Greco, registrar of wills, and Henrietta B. Anderson, clerk of courts.

Albaugh spoke briefly and touched on merits of the candidates. Atty. Eugene Rumisek, an independent candidate for district attorney, also spoke.

Harrell Bomar introduced several candidates for Industry Borough offices, including Betty Jane Brucker, School Board; Earl W. Stephenson, Council for two years, and James Muns and George Ross, Council for four years.

A buffet lunch was served. Miss Margaret Boston is secretary of the Young Republicans' Club.

To Get Wage Boost

CHARLESTON, W. Va. (AP)—The 1,300 employes of Goodyear Atomic Corp.'s atomic plant in Piketon, Ohio, will receive a 10-cent hourly wage boost as a result of a new contract signed Wednesday. Harry Drenner, district director of the Oil, Chemical and Atomic Workers International Union, which represented the workers in negotiations, said the plant's new average wage rate will be $2.79 an hour.

2 Killed, 3 Injured In U.S. 30 Accident

LIMA, Ohio (AP)—An automobile carrying five men spun out of control and into the opposite lane of traffic on U. S. 30 Thursday. Two men were killed and the other three seriously injured when a trailer-truck smashed into the car's rear end.

Dead are Frank G. Breece, 56, of Middlepoint in Van Wert County, and Frank Brendehoff, 69, of Delphos, on the Van Wert-Allen County line.

Sheriff's deputies said Ralph E. Warneke, 33, of Delphos, apparently lost control of the car when he tried to brake it.

The event was sponsored by the Boosters Club.

Father Wounds Bus Driver Over Banning Of Son

MCHENRY, Ill. (AP)—A father, angry because his 7-year-old son was banned from a school bus for unruly behavior, halted the bus and shot the driver Thursday as 25 children looked on.

The driver, Victor A. Hopp, 26, and Joseph DiMaggio, 49, exchanged blows after DiMaggio curbed the bus and argued with Hopp for not allowing his son Dominic to ride the bus.

Sheriff Melvin Griebel said DiMaggio pulled a .25-caliber pistol from his pocket. His son tried to separate the two men, shouting, "Don't shoot him, Daddy. Don't shoot him." DiMaggio fired one shot at Hopp, the sheriff said.

Chief Deputy Edward Dowd said the shot, which struck Hopp in the left shoulder, above the heart, failed to knock the bus driver to the ground and he continued to exchange blows with DiMaggio. However, Dowd said, two older boys who had gotten off the bus finally broke up the fight.

DiMaggio, a salesman, was held in jail under $5,000 bond on a charge of assault with intent to murder.

Hopp was in fair condition.

Out Of The Air

By JOHN CROSBY

A Golden Opportunity For TV

PARIS

Under the chestnut trees, laced with spring sunshine, Dave Garroway, the proprietor of "Today," drove the little Simca sports car along the Seine toward the Eiffel Tower, inaugurating intercontinental television on tape and also a dangerous new game for sports car drivers.

John Crosby

This involves driving with one hand, pointing out places of interest with the other, keeping one eye on a TV monitor on top of a huge TV truck topped by two cameras, and the other eye theoretically on the road, trying not to kill any French pedestrians.

Swinging into the Rue Royale around the Madeleine, Garroway and the TV truck went against the one-way traffic with the blessings—just this once—of the French police.

However, the police had forgotten to notify the motorists of this development with the consequence that hordes of angry Citroens and Renaults found the TV truck and a line of NBC-TV cars quite unexpectedly bearing down on them. Only one bemused driver plowed into another car which seems a cheap price to pay.

-:-

AT 5 P.M. the following day, Mr. Garroway, perched on the first stage of the Eiffel Tower, said, "We've come to the end of a very pleasant two hours."

This brought a snort of not very amused laughter from crew members who had been up all night, and the cast who had got up at 5 a.m. and taped for 10 hours to put together a two-hour show.

From this end it's impossible to say how good that first show was (it was shown in New York on Monday) but the pictures we saw here were magnificent in quality.

The weather cooperated superbly with one of the finest days Paris has had all spring, the sun dappling the tree-lined pavements with that specially soft Parisienne sunshine. The French showed up in throngs to stare at the TV truck; the children gamboled on the grass and rolled hoops for the cameras under the tower; the fountains on the Place de la Concorde were turned on just for Mr. Garroway and NBC; and even Brigitte Bardot—to everyone's vast astonishment—tore herself out of bed and arrived at the Eiffel Tower at 10 a.m.

STEPPING into the elevator, she announced: "I've never been up here before."

It would take an American TV show to get Miss Bardot up to the Eiffel Tower. On camera, she plugged a couple of her pictures, told Garroway the Eiffel Tower was strictly for tourists, recited a couple of lines—Shakespeare's "to be or not to be" speech (making herself the first French actress to play Hamlet since Sarah Bernhardt)—smiled entrancingly and walked away from the camera with—shall we say?—her whole heart in her work.

Around Miss Bardot were spaced some other French goodies—a fashion show, a talk with the distinguished French writer, Marcel Pagnol (who said all writers should live in Paris all the time), a talk with Jacqueline Joubert, who is described as a sort of French Arlene Francis ("French artists arrive late—very late," sighed Miss Joubert. "You Americans got me up at 6:30 in the morning"); and lots of pretty shots of Paris from the Tower and from the ground.

ONE CAN'T escape the impression that this is the sort of thing television should have been doing all along—bringing a city like Paris right into your living rooms with live cameras (even if the show is on tape).

This was the maiden voyage of Interconteninental Television which owns this truck. From now through fall, the truck, which is a complete self-contained TV studio with control room and tape facilities and all the fixings, will be shuttling around Europe on assignments from NBC and CBS and doing shows for its own Intercontinental.

From May 8 through May 15, it will be in Geneva taping a news show about the foreign ministers conference for CBS; back to Paris for Intercontinental's own Elsa Maxwell show; off to Spoleto, Italy, for a special program built around the "Festival of Two Worlds"; then it will tape the Victor Borge show from the Tivoli Gardens in the heart of Mr. Borge's native Copenhagen.

-:-

ON JULY 25, the huge truck will be in Moscow taping the opening of the Moscow Fair for CBS News and it will stick around to tape an Ed Sullivan show from Moscow. The last week in August, it will be in the Piazza San Marco taping a Timex jazz show starring Louis Armstrong.

It all sounds wonderfully exciting and I hope it is commercially successful. After all, foreign scenery — "Cinerama," "Around the World in 80 Days," "Bridge on the River Kwai," hosts of others—proved to be a tremendous shot in the box offices to the movie industry.

Perhaps it will bring some new excitement to TV. The possibilities in the news field alone are boundless since tape is faster, more accurate and more flexible and much less bother than film.

In Mediterranean

SALINEVILLE — Airman Ronald T. McCloskey, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles McCloskey, 113 E. Main St., is serving with Carrier Air Group 1 aboard the Franklin D. Roosevelt with the U. S. 6th Fleet in the Mediterranean. The ship is scheduled to return to Mayport, Fla., in late August. Airman McCloskey was graduated from Salineville High School.

$769,538 Due For Midland's School Budget

The Midland Board of Education has released figures on anticipated revenue and the budget of $769,538 for 1959-1960 which was adopted tentatively Monday evening at a special meeting.

Anticipated expenditures include general control, $30,912, or $365 more than last year; instruction, $438,435, up $44,209; auxiliary agencies and co-ordinate activities, $33,440, up $1,620; operation of plant, $88,521, up $12,924; maintenance, $27,250, up $18,950; fixed charges, $42,132, down $579; debt service, $51,769, less by $962.25 and capital outlay, $57,079 or $373,555 less.

Total proposed expenditures next year are $769,538, which is $297,028.25 less than last year's, which were $1,066,566.25.

Of the anticipated revenue, $365,170 is expected from local sources, which includes real estate taxes.

Some $233,477 is expected from delinquent taxes, tuition, deposit earnings, rent, gifts from the Crucible Steel Co. and miscellaneous. Tuition is expected to bring $109,350 and Crucible's gift, $121,491.

Some $48,800 is expected from state sources and $91,058 of non-revenue receipts. There is an expected general fund balance of $31,033 as of June 30.

James Morrison, finance committee chairman, said the budget provides for 190 days for teachers and 185 days for students and an allowance for more classroom equipment.

The smaller budget is due mostly to a reduced capital outlay, since money for the new gymnasium was included in last year's budget, Supt. Ralph H. Jewell, said. Maintenance and operation of the schools has jumped due to the addition, he said.

The new budget will be adopted May 18 after a period of three weeks allowed by law for public inspection.

BOOSTER POLIO SHOTS RECOMMENDED

Q. What is the latest information concerning use of booster polio shots?

A. Work done at Vanderbilt University suggests that it might be best to give a booster polio shot about 12 months after the last of the original series of three injections. The American Academy of Pediatrics goes along with this recommendation, saying that a fourth shot is advisable although not mandatory. Consult your doctor about booster polio vaccine before the polio season sets in.

Q. What causes formation of tartar on the teeth?

A. A current view is that tartar forms around clusters of bacteria and debris that collect on the teeth. Certain things tend to encourage tartar formation, such as lack of friction, irregularities of the teeth, and roughness of tooth surface. Excessive tartar formation damages the gums and may lead to pyorrhea. Visit your dentist at least twice a year.

Q. My three - year - old seems to have a special fondness for chalky substances such as plaster. Is this harmful?

A. Fondness for substances not ordinarily considered edible (doctors call it pica) can lead to trouble. Most babies will put almost anything in the mouth but pica after 18 months of age should be considered abnormal. In most cases of pica the child is "addicted" to some particular substance like plaster. The situation is worse if the youngster takes a liking to dried paint or other lead-containing materials. Day to day nibbling of paint often leads to chronic lead poisoning with possible damage to brain and other body tissues. So don't take pica lightly. Use no-lead paints for baby beds and play pens. Protect the youngster in every way possible until they are old enough to be taught better.

Answers do not necessarily reflect the opinion of all doctors. The diagnosis and treatment of disease is the function of the patient's personal physician.

Out Of The Air

By JOHN CROSBY

A Golden Opportunity For TV

PARIS

Under the chestnut trees, laced with spring sunshine, Dave Garroway, the proprietor of "Today," drove the little Simca sports car along the Seine toward the Eiffel Tower, inaugurating intercontinental television on tape and also a dangerous new game for sports car drivers.

John Crosby

This involves driving with one hand, pointing out places of interest with the other, keeping one eye on a TV monitor on top of a huge TV truck topped by two cameras, and the other eye theoretically on the road, trying not to kill any French pedestrians.

Swinging into the Rue Royale around the Madeleine, Garroway and the TV truck went against the one-way traffic with the blessings—just this once—of the French police.

However, the police had forgotten to notify the motorists of this development with the consequence that hordes of angry Citroens and Renaults found the TV truck and a line of NBC-TV cars quite unexpectedly bearing down on them. Only one bemused driver plowed into another car which seems a cheap price to pay.

-:-

AT 5 P.M. the following day, Mr. Garroway, perched on the first stage of the Eiffel Tower, said, "We've come to the end of a very pleasant two hours."

This brought a snort of not very amused laughter from crew members who had been up all night, and the cast who had got up at 5 a.m. and taped for 10 hours to put together a two-hour show.

From this end it's impossible to say how good that first show was (it was shown in New York on Monday) but the pictures we saw here were magnificent in quality.

The weather cooperated superbly with one of the finest days Paris has had all spring, the sun dappling the tree-lined pavements with that specially soft Parisienne sunshine. The French showed up in throngs to stare at the TV truck; the children gamboled on the grass and rolled hoops for the cameras under the tower; the fountains on the Place de la Concorde were turned on just for Mr. Garroway and NBC; and even Brigitte Bardot—to everyone's vast astonishment—tore herself out of bed and arrived at the Eiffel Tower at 10 a.m.

STEPPING into the elevator, she announced: "I've never been up here before."

It would take an American TV show to get Miss Bardot up to the Eiffel Tower. On camera, she plugged a couple of her pictures, told Garroway the Eiffel Tower was strictly for tourists, recited a couple of lines—Shakespeare's "to be or not to be" speech (making herself the first French actress to play Hamlet since Sarah Bernhardt)—smiled entrancingly and walked away from the camera with—shall we say?—her whole heart in her work.

Around Miss Bardot were spaced some other French goodies—a fashion show, a talk with the distinguished French writer, Marcel Pagnol (who said all writers should live in Paris all the time), a talk with Jacqueline Joubert, who is described as a sort of French Arlene Francis ("French artists arrive late—very late," sighed Miss Joubert. "You Americans got me up at 6:30 in the morning"); and lots of pretty shots of Paris from the Tower and from the ground.

ONE CAN'T escape the impression that this is the sort of thing television should have been doing all along—bringing a city like Paris right into your living rooms with live cameras (even if the show is on tape).

This was the maiden voyage of Interconteninental Television which owns this truck. From now through fall, the truck, which is a complete self-contained TV studio with control room and tape facilities and all the fixings, will be shuttling around Europe on assignments from NBC and CBS and doing shows for its own Intercontinental.

From May 8 through May 15, it will be in Geneva taping a news show about the foreign ministers conference for CBS; back to Paris for Intercontinental's own Elsa Maxwell show; off to Spoleto, Italy, for a special program built around the "Festival of Two Worlds"; then it will tape the Victor Borge show from the Tivoli Gardens in the heart of Mr. Borge's native Copenhagen.

-:-

ON JULY 25, the huge truck will be in Moscow taping the opening of the Moscow Fair for CBS News and it will stick around to tape an Ed Sullivan show from Moscow. The last week in August, it will be in the Piazza San Marco taping a Timex jazz show starring Louis Armstrong.

It all sounds wonderfully exciting and I hope it is commercially successful. After all, foreign scenery — "Cinerama," "Around the World in 80 Days," "Bridge on the River Kwai," hosts of others—proved to be a tremendous shot in the box offices to the movie industry.

Perhaps it will bring some new excitement to TV. The possibilities in the news field alone are boundless since tape is faster, more accurate and more flexible and much less bother than film.

In Mediterranean

SALINEVILLE — Airman Ronald T. McCloskey, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles McCloskey, 113 E. Main St., is serving with Carrier Air Group 1 aboard the Franklin D. Roosevelt with the U. S. 6th Fleet in the Mediterranean. The ship is scheduled to return to Mayport, Fla., in late August. Airman McCloskey was graduated from Salineville High School.

$769,538 Due For Midland's School Budget

The Midland Board of Education has released figures on anticipated revenue and the budget of $769,538 for 1959-1960 which was adopted tentatively Monday evening at a special meeting.

Anticipated expenditures include general control, $30,912, or $365 more than last year; instruction, $438,435, up $44,209; auxiliary agencies and co-ordinate activities, $33,440, up $1,620; operation of plant, $88,521, up $12,924; maintenance, $27,250, up $18,950; fixed charges, $42,132, down $579; debt service, $51,769, less by $962.25 and capital outlay, $57,079 or $373,555 less.

Total proposed expenditures next year are $769,538, which is $297,028.25 less than last year's, which were $1,066,566.25.

Of the anticipated revenue, $365,170 is expected from local sources, which includes real estate taxes.

Some $233,477 is expected from delinquent taxes, tuition, deposit earnings, rent, gifts from the Crucible Steel Co. and miscellaneous. Tuition is expected to bring $109,350 and Crucible's gift, $121,491.

Some $48,800 is expected from state sources and $91,058 of non-revenue receipts. There is an expected general fund balance of $31,033 as of June 30.

James Morrison, finance committee chairman, said the budget provides for 190 days for teachers and 185 days for students and an allowance for more classroom equipment.

The smaller budget is due mostly to a reduced capital outlay, since money for the new gymnasium was included in last year's budget, Supt. Ralph H. Jewell, said. Maintenance and operation of the schools has jumped due to the addition, he said.

The new budget will be adopted May 18 after a period of three weeks allowed by law for public inspection.

BOOSTER POLIO SHOTS RECOMMENDED

Q. What is the latest information concerning use of booster polio shots?

A. Work done at Vanderbilt University suggests that it might be best to give a booster polio shot about 12 months after the last of the original series of three injections. The American Academy of Pediatrics goes along with this recommendation, saying that a fourth shot is advisable although not mandatory. Consult your doctor about booster polio vaccine before the polio season sets in.

Q. What causes formation of tartar on the teeth?

A. A current view is that tartar forms around clusters of bacteria and debris that collect on the teeth. Certain things tend to encourage tartar formation, such as lack of friction, irregularities of the teeth, and roughness of tooth surface. Excessive tartar formation damages the gums and may lead to pyorrhea. Visit your dentist at least twice a year.

Q. My three - year - old seems to have a special fondness for chalky substances such as plaster. Is this harmful?

A. Fondness for substances not ordinarily considered edible (doctors call it pica) can lead to trouble. Most babies will put almost anything in the mouth but pica after 18 months of age should be considered abnormal. In most cases of pica the child is "addicted" to some particular substance like plaster. The situation is worse if the youngster takes a liking to dried paint or other lead-containing materials. Day to day nibbling of paint often leads to chronic lead poisoning with possible damage to brain and other body tissues. So don't take pica lightly. Use no-lead paints for baby beds and play pens. Protect the youngster in every way possible until they are old enough to be taught better.

Beaver Local To Act May 22

Bidding Due On School Expansion

Seven area construction firms have obtained plans and specifications of Beaver Local School District's planned $470,000 building expansion program for which bids will be opened May 22.

In a move to begin construction by late June, the Board of Education will tabulate the bids as soon as possible and relay the materials to the State Board of Education for consideration at the June meeting.

APPROVAL BY the state board will clear the way to let contracts and start construction late in June, George VanHorne, executive head, said.

VanHorne said plans call for the initial work to begin on an addition at the Public School, where increased enrollment next September will require more classrooms.

He said the building — which has a listed capacity for 636 pupils — will add 50 more by fall, making the enrollment 710.

"We must have at least two more classrooms usable by September to accommodate these added students," he said.

The building program, financed by a $220,000 bond issue - levy approved last November and a $250,-464 state grant, will provide for additional rooms and facilities at the high school, public school and at the elementary buildings at Calcutta, West Point, Rogers and Elkton. Plans were prepared by Robert Beatty, city architect.

—:—

THE PROJECT at the Public School will cost an estimated $97,-848 for construction, equipment and furnishings. Construction alone will amount to about $86,600.

The addition will be on the west side of the building, and will include at least four, possibly six classrooms, new toilets and a small faculty room. The present faculty room will be made into a library area.

One classroom will serve as an art room, and the present art room will be converted into a science laboratory. The bus loading area in front of the school will be blacktopped, and another well will be provided.

At the high school, the addition will be made at the front of the school facing Route 7. The cost estimate is $70,644, with $62,400 allotted for construction.

—:—

THE ADDITION will include a music room which can be divided by movable partitions into a general purpose room and practice rooms. There will also be a new office for the principal and a new general office area.

The present principal's office will be converted to a faculty room and an office for the assistant principal. The present faculty room will be connected to the high school library and be used as a library stack room.

The general purpose room will also be convertible into a small theater. Bus loading areas at the rear of the building will be blacktopped.

—:—

AT CALCUTTA two more classrooms will be added to the southwest side of the present brick building and the present old wooden structure on the site will be demolished. McGuffey Hall, long-time wooden building now used as a gymnasium, will not be affected.

The Calcutta project will cost an estimated $121,630, with the construction expense around $102,-000.

East of the present school will be connected a large all - purpose room which will be used as an eating area, and a new kitchen and a new boiler room along with a new 1,100 - gallon water tank. The two present wells will be connected, and corrections made in the sewage system, which has not been draining properly.

AT WEST POINT, Rogers and Elkton will be built two additional classrooms with a movable divider so that the new rooms can be employed as one large room for public and general use. New kitchens will also be built in these three projects which will cost $60,-115 each. New walks and roadways will be added where necessary.

At Rogers, because of the larger enrollment, the present kitchen will be remodeled to serve as a dining area, and a new breezeway installed between the school and present kitchen, replacing a temporary breezeway.

VanHorne said today state officials have made a ruling which affects the planned closing of the Oak Grove School along Route 170.

THE STATE has ruled, effective in September, each elementary school shall have at least three fulltime teachers and not more than two grades in the same room. Oak Grove at present has two teachers for four grades.

VanHorne said in order to keep Oak Grove open for next year, special requests must be filed with the State Board to obtain an exemption. He said if it is necessary to seek such an exemption, because of the pace of the building program, it is "likely" such a request would be granted.

—:—

THE OLD wooden school is scheduled to close as part of the district improvement program, but some residents have been seeking to retain its use.

VanHorne added the state ruling, nevertheless, indicates the future status of the school, once the building program is completed.

Bruised, Lifeless Body Of Girl, 3, Found By Police

BUFFALO, N.Y. (AP) — Police picked up blood-spattered clothing in the home of a 3-year-old girl whose bruised and lifeless body was found two miles away Thursday.

The battered body of Sharon Crossman was found beneath the porch of a house after a two-day search. The exact cause of death was not immediately known.

The bloodstains on the clothing were being analyzed to determine the type.

The parents of the dead girl, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Crossman, told police they had used pieces of cloth to stop the nose bleeds of their children. The parents were not held.

A medical examiner said there was no evidence that the child had been assaulted sexually. But there was evidence, he said, that she had been beaten severely.

Sharon recently had undergone a pancreas operation and was reported still in a weakened condition.

Her mother Eleanor, 27, had told police the child disappeared from her crib sometime early Tuesday. She said she had put Sharon in her second-floor bedroom for a nap and then had gone to rest. Several hours later, she told police, she awoke and discovered the child was gone.

80 Midland Students To Attend TV Dance

Some 80 Midland High School students will attend "Midland High School Day" Saturday afternoon, May 9, on the television program "Teen Club 11", WIIC at Pittsburgh.

Bill Cardille is the program's emcee. About 40 of the students will represent the Hi - Spot Youth Center, with its newly elected queen and her court. Mrs. William Spisak is the center director.

Raymond Stowitzky, Student Council sponsor, said John Gypalo, council president, will name two students to speak on the school.

The group will go by bus and must be in Pittsburgh by 1 p. m. for a rehearsal. Chaperones will be named later.

Building Permits Hit $26,500 At Midland

Permits for $26,500 in building were issued during April, R. E. Steebner, Midland borough engineer and building inspector, said.

William Komara, 1152 Virginia Ave., was issued a permit to build a $1,000 one-story concrete block garage; Michael Tepovich, an $18,-000 brick veneer residence on Delaware Ave., in Plan K; and John Falicia, to build a second-story at 224 Midland Ave. for an apartment at $7,500.

Merchants Wait Data Tuesday On Election Results

Results of the annual election will be reported by a tellers' committee at a meeting of the East Liverpool Merchants Association Tuesday at 9:30 a. m. in the Chamber of Commerce office.

The balloting got under way early this month after a proposed slate was presented by a nominating committee. Leslie Blumenthal was unopposed for the chairmanship to succeed William Kozel, who is rounding out his second term. Other nominees also were unopposed, but ballots mailed to ELMA members provided space for write-ins for each office.

The new officers will assume their duties at the meeting June 2.

Meanwhile, the merchants association said a crowd of about 36 is expected to participate in its annual "spring outing" Wednesday afternoon. The group will travel to Pittsburgh by chartered bus to attend a Pittsburgh Pirates baseball game, followed by dinner and a trip around the Golden Triangle area in the river craft Gateway Clipper. The committee in charge is comprised of Blumenthal, Harold Allison and Edwin Maloney.

William Komara, 1152 Virginia Ave., was issued a permit to build a $1,000 one-story concrete block garage; Michael Tepovich, an $18,000 brick veneer residence on Delaware Ave., in Plan K; and John Falicia, to build a second-story at 224 Midland Ave. for an apartment at $7,500.

Merchants Wait Data Tuesday On Election Results

Results of the annual election will be reported by a tellers' committee at a meeting of the East Liverpool Merchants Association Tuesday at 9:30 a. m. in the Chamber of Commerce office.

The balloting got under way early this month after a proposed slate was presented by a nominating committee. Leslie Blumenthal was unopposed for the chairmanship to succeed William Kozel, who is rounding out his second term. Other nominees also were unopposed, but ballots mailed to ELMA members provided space for write-ins for each office.

The new officers will assume their duties at the meeting June 2.

Meanwhile, the merchants association said a crowd of about 36 is expected to participate in its annual "spring outing" Wednesday afternoon. The group will travel to Pittsburgh by chartered bus to attend a Pittsburgh Pirates baseball game, followed by dinner and a trip around the Golden Triangle area in the river craft Gateway Clipper. The committee in charge is comprised of Blumenthal, Harold Allison and Edwin Maloney.

The Sports Bench

Bruno Returns To Beaver Falls . . .

Larry Bruno (the former Potter great) and Geneva College always have had a close tie.

It was at Geneva that Bruno made a name for himself in football. After leaving Geneva in 1947, he went on to coach basketball and football at Monaca High School and supplied his alma mater with a steady stream of Monaca athletes.

Year after year the Geneva College basketball team has had its share of former Monaca players.

Two weeks ago Bruno was named head football coach at Beaver Falls High School and is back in the college town where his career started.

He was one of 37 candidates who applied for the coaching job at Beaver Falls and was an unanimous choice for the post which pays $1,200 a season.

—:—

THE NEW position is considered a stepup for Larry, since it is a larger school. But most observers in the Beaver Valley admit that Larry won't have an easy time re-building the football fortunes at Beaver Falls.

Football has been lagging there for the past several years, with losing seasons piling up. It will be a big challenge for Bruno, who compiled 53 wins, 35 defeats and 4 ties over a 10-year period at Monaca.

Larry has the distinction of being the only Potter athlete ever to play in an East-West Shrine game and also of being named to a Little All-American team.

He was graduated from East Liverpool in 1940 and was the second Potter football player to receive the Bill Booth award. Bruno entered Geneva College the same year and broke into a starting halfback position.

In 1942 he returned a kickoff 91 yards for a touchdown against Youngstown College. The record still stands.

His college football career was interrupted by the military service in 1943, but he returned in 1946 and picked up where he left off.

Scoring 11 touchdowns, he was one of the top point-makers in the state in 1946 and was named to the Little All-American team.

Larry was chosen to play in the East-West Shrine game on New Year's Day 1947. Incidentally, in that game he played against Jackie Jensen, then an All-American football player and last year most valuable player in the American League.

After a brief trial with the Steelers in 1947, Larry chose to take an assistant coaching job at Monaca. He served as assistant two years, then moved up to the head job in football and basketball in 1949.

Bruno also has a sterling record in basketball with 146 wins against 52 defeats in 10 years and three Section 8 titles to his credit and it was his Monaca team that broke Farrell's string of 99 games on their home court a few years back.

Larry, who is married to the former Virginia Winters, has an 11-year-old son and a daughter 5.

City League To Open June 1 . . .

THE CITY Baseball League officially acquired its fourth entry this week when Lawrenceville American Legion Post 163 joined the fold.

Lawrenceville joins Floyd Cox Construction, the East Liverpool Merchants and Irondale.

Vic Reed, a former Chester High athlete, is handling the Lawrenceville team. Bob Campbell will manage Cox Construction, John Andrason will run the East Liverpool Merchants and Joe Urich is piloting the Irondale nine.

Glenn Barnett, president, has set June 1 as opening day. Each team will play 18 games.

The league again will be affiliated with the American Baseball Congress and send a representative to the ABC tournament in August.

The league has named Frank Dawson Jr. as secretary-treasurer.

Officers and managers will meet tonight at 7:30 at Campbell's Motorama on Pennsylvania Ave.

Potts Eyes Quarterback Job . . .

JIM POTTS, who quarterbacked the Potters a few years ago, was at the signal-calling position for the "Browns" in an intrasquad game at Bowling Green University Wednesday night.

Jim transferred from West Virginia University after remaining out of school for a year. He has been drawing attention with his performance so far this spring and will be battling for the starting job come next fall.

East Palestine has three gridders listed on the Bowling Green roster in Bob Bird and Mervin Ward guards and Ed Henry a halfback.

Bob Gibson, who took the Potters to an undefeated season in 1955, is still backfield coach at Bowling Green. He was joined there this year by Bill Mallory, former East Palestine coach, who is handling the ends.

Midland Gains 8-5 Win Over Hopewell In Rain

In a game called at the end of five innings because of rain, Midland picked up an 8-5 victory over Hopewell Thursday at Aliquippa.

A big seven - run second inning provided the Leopards with all the runs they needed for the victory.

The seven runs came on a two-run single by Dean Frederick, four errors, catcher's interference and three walks. Midland added another run in the fourth inning.

The Leopards collected three hits but six Hopewell errors helped the winners. Krizan was the winning pitcher and spaced eight hits.

Hopewell scored two runs in the first and fourth innings and one in the fifth.

The game was played in a light drizzle until it was called in the sixth.

Midland will meet Monaca Monday at Crucible Field.

Pierce Defeats Yankees, 4-3, In 11 Innings

Spahn Nips Cards, 1-0, For 249th

By ED WILKS
AP Sports Writer

It's been a long, frustrating fight, but maybe things finally are beginning to break Billy Pierce's way in his running battle with the New York Yankees.

The Chicago White Sox's stubby southpaw has the upper hand on all but two of the other seven American League clubs. One is Detroit, the club he broke in with back in 1948. He's 16-17 against the Tigers. The other is New York (20-30).

He's been faring a bit better against the champs of late, however, winning four of his last five decisions against them. And he made it two in a row the hard way Thursday night, dueling through 11 innings — outpitching both Whitey Ford and Ryne Duren — for a 4-3 victory that left the Sox all alone in second place, a game shy of idle Cleveland.

The defeat, hammered home by Al Smith's two-out, bases-loaded single, plunged the Yankees below .500 once again and put them sixth. Washington slipped ahead to fifth with a 9-1 triumph at Detroit. Kansas City tied Baltimore for third by beating the Orioles 4-3 on Harry Simpson's ninth-inning home run.

Pierce, 32, gave up nine hits, but allowed only one run after Bill Skowron's two-run double in the second. The third Yank run tied it in the seventh when Yogi Berra doubled for his first extra-base hit of the year. A sacrifice and a wild pitch brought him across, but Pierce then took charge for a 3-1 record.

Simpson, hitless in five previous trips this year, walloped his homer leading off the ninth against reliever Billy Loes (1-1). Simpson was hitting for Ned Garver, who won his third in a row after an opening defeat.

Bill Fischer, a balding, 28-year-old right-hander who once worked for the White Sox and Tigers, put Detroit away with a six-hitter. Now 2-0, he blanked the Bengals on three singles after giving up the only earned run he's allowed in 28 innings. It scored on Eddie Yost's fourth-inning homer in his first meeting with his old mates.

Paul Foytack (0-3) lost it, giving up eight hits, one Norm Zauchin's two-run homer. He was chased in a five-run, fifth-inning burst by the Nats, who finished with 17 hits.

Warren (The Wonder) Spahn did it again.

Already well established as one of baseball's all-time great left-handed pitchers, he added his 249th victory and 45th shutout Thursday night, getting all the help he needed from Hank Aaron's home run for a 1-0 victory over St. Louis.

The victory retained Milwaukee's slim (.045) percentage point lead over Los Angeles in the National League race.

The Dodgers, with Old Guard Duke Snider's two-run, inside-the-park homer capping a four-run seventh inning, won 6-4 at Philadelphia. San Francisco, rained out at Pittsburgh, regained third place as the Chicago Cubs' Bob Anderson and Bill Henry quieted Cincinnati's bats for a 3-2 victory on Ernie Bank's 10th-inning homer.

Spahn, second in victories only to the White Sox's Early Wynn (251) among active pitchers, and topped by none now in business in shutouts, gained a 3-2 record and his second whitewash of the season with a six-hitter. He didn't walk a man and struck out four. Alex Kellner (1-1) lost it.

Snider's homer came off reliever Jack Meyer after Wally Moon's two-run double had tied it against loser Ray Semproch (2-1), who had given up only three hits until the seventh.

Johnny Klippstein (3-1) was the winner with 2 1-3 innings of one-hit relief for Sandy Koufax.

Banks and rookie George Altman took care of the Cubs scoring. Altman doubled and came home on Banks' single in the first inning off Reds' starter Bob Purkey, who also gave up Altman's second major league homer (both in two days) in the third. Banks' homer, his fifth, came off losing reliever Bob Mabe (1-1). Anderson lasted until the ninth. Then Henry (2-0) came on and struck out Vada Pinson with two on.

Bank's Homer Nips Reds, 3-2, In 10th Inning

CINCINNATI (AP) — Manager Mayo Smith probably would pay good money if someone comes up with a recipe to give the Cincinnati Reds good pitching and hitting at the same time.

The Reds came up with some pretty fair hurling Thursday night for a change but the hitters, for the most part, were taking the night off.

As a result the Chicago Cubs wound up with a 3-2 victory on Ernie Banks' 10th inning home run off Bob Mabe.

Mabe had followed Bob Purkey and then Tom Acker to the mound but Purkey was taken out for a pinch hitter and Acker for a pinch runner. The three pitchers allowed the Cubs nine hits but two of them were homers—one by George Altman in addition to the blow by Banks.

But that famed Cincinnati power which had produced 81 runs in the last nine previous games was sadly missing. Bob Anderson and Bill Henry gave up only eight hits and the Reds couldn't come up with that important clutch hit in both the seventh and ninth innings when they could have salted the game away.

Jerry Lynch's home run and Roy McMillan's double were the only extra base hits the Reds produced.

Banks and Altman accounted for all the Cubs runs. Altman's double and Banks' single gave the Bruins a run in the first inning and Altman's homer came in the third.

Both the Cubs and the Reds had the bases full in the seventh without scoring and the Cincinnatians had two on in the ninth when Henry came on to fan Vada Pinson and get the side out.

The Los Angeles Dodgers come in tonight to open a four-game series. Cincinnati's Orlando Pena goes against Don Drysdale.

Kapp Was Not Loser In Sectional Contest

Through an error in reporting the results of the East Liverpool-Toronto Sectional Tournament game, pitcher Mike Kapp was charged the loss, but the loss should go to Jimmy Miles who started the sixth inning of the game and gave up the tying and winning runs. Kapp pitched five innings and gave up only one hit and one unearned run. He was taken out so he could have pitched Thursday against Steubenville Big Red if East Liverpool would have won.

18 Thoroughbreds Poised For 85th Kentucky Derby

By ORLO ROBERTSON

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) — An evenly matched field of 18, packed with horses who take off like a missile, gives promise that Saturday's Kentucky Derby will be one of the swiftest in recent years.

Whirlaway's 2:01 2-5 record clocking of 1941 doesn't appear in danger. But there is so much early speed in the race that the time for the 1¼-mile trip around Churchill Downs may be the fastest since Swaps stopped the clock at 2:01 4-5 four years ago.

Fair skies are expected to greet the Derby Day crowd, annually estimated at 100,000.

Some say this is the most ordinary field of 3-year-olds since Count Turf triumphed in 1951. In winter and early spring stakes the leading candidates beat each other with almost monotonous regularity.

Hardly without exception, favorites for the 85th running of America's most colorful turf event are horses that prefer to run in front or stay close to the pace.

Take C.T. Chenery's First Landing, the 3-1 favorite off a return to the form that won him the 2-year-old title in 1958 and the presence of five-time winner Eddie Arcaro in the saddle.

First Landing lost the Wood Memorial by three-quarters of a length. But he was either in front or at the leader's throat in a 46 1-5 half, a 1:11 six furlongs and a 1:36 mile.

Fred Turner Jr.'s Tomy Lee, second choice at 4-1, set a Keeneland standard of 1:21 3-5 for 7 furlongs in a front running race. Brookmeade Stable's Sword Dancer ripped off 7 furlongs in 1:22 1-5 here a week ago while setting the pace. He's the third choice at 5-1.

James Norris' Easy Spur, Florida Derby winner; C.V. Whitney's Silver Spoon, the filly who won the Santa Anita Derby, and Neil S. McCarthy's Finnegan, victorious in the California derby all have early speed along with such others as Mrs. Jacques Braunstein's Royal Orbit and Calumet Farm's On-and-On.

Five of the last seven derby winners raced on top or near the pace all the way.

If all 18 are in the starting gate at 4:30 p.m. (EST), the winner will receive a net of $120,900.

The race also may be seen on television and hard on radio from 4:15 to 4:45 p.m. EST (CBS).

Alliance Golfer In 5th

SOUTHERN PINES, N. C. (AP) —Owen Lewis of Alliance, Ohio, is in a two-way tie for fifth place in the 54-hole Grandmasters Seniors golf tournament here after shooting a first-round 77 Thursday—seven strokes off the leader's pace.

McLish Faces Yanks Tonight At Cleveland

CLEVELAND (AP)—Is this going to be a merry month for the Cleveland Indians?

You can get an indication tonight when the Tribe sends Cal McLish (2-0) against Art Ditmar (0-1) and the New York Yankees in the opener of a two-game series.

Cleveland got off to a swift start this season, winning its first 10 of 11 games. Then came a three-game losing spell. That gave the Indians a 10-4 mark for April and a one game lead on the rest of the American League.

A year ago, the Yankees broke up any semblance of a race in May by winning 17 of 23 games. It put them 6½ games ahead of the pack and no team was able to get within hailing distance, although the Yanks played only so-so after mid-season.

This season the Yanks are floundering at the start of the season. If Cleveland can take them in the two games, it will be a big morale booster, in addition to putting those games in the victory column.

McLish beat the Yanks twice a year ago, although the Tribe won only seven of 22 meetings. Ditmar, however, also was tough on the Tribe. He beat the Indians three times last season without a loss.

Cleveland hasn't played since losing a doubleheader to Chicago's White Sox Sunday.

Ed Moore, director of safety at Laurel race course, is a former FBI man.

Bruno Returns To Beaver Falls . . .

Larry Bruno (the former Potter great) and Geneva College always have had a close tie.

It was at Geneva that Bruno made a name for himself in football. After leaving Geneva in 1947, he went on to coach basketball and football at Monaca High School and supplied his alma mater with a steady stream of Monaca athletes.

Year after year the Geneva College basketball team has had its share of former Monaca players.

Two weeks ago Bruno was named head football coach at Beaver Falls High School and is back in the college town where his career started.

He was one of 37 candidates who applied for the coaching job at Beaver Falls and was an unanimous choice for the post which pays $1,200 a season.

—:—

THE NEW position is considered a stepup for Larry, since it is a larger school. But most observers in the Beaver Valley admit that Larry won't have an easy time re-building the football fortunes at Beaver Falls.

Football has been lagging there for the past several years, with losing seasons piling up. It will be a big challenge for Bruno, who compiled 53 wins, 35 defeats and 4 ties over a 10-year period at Monaca.

Larry has the distinction of being the only Potter athlete ever to play in an East-West Shrine game and also of being named to a Little All-American team.

He was graduated from East Liverpool in 1940 and was the second Potter football player to receive the Bill Booth award. Bruno entered Geneva College the same year and broke into a starting halfback position.

In 1942 he returned a kickoff 91 yards for a touchdown against Youngstown College. The record still stands.

His college football career was interrupted by the military service in 1943, but he returned in 1946 and picked up where he left off.

Scoring 11 touchdowns, he was one of the top point-makers in the state in 1946 and was named to the Little All-American team.

Larry was chosen to play in the East-West Shrine game on New Year's Day 1947. Incidentally, in that game he played against Jackie Jensen, then an All-American football player and last year most valuable player in the American League.

After a brief trial with the Steelers in 1947, Larry chose to take an assistant coaching job at Monaca. He served as assistant two years, then moved up to the head job in football and basketball in 1949.

Bruno also has a sterling record in basketball with 146 wins against 52 defeats in 10 years and three Section 8 titles to his credit and it was his Monaca team that broke Farrell's string of 99 games on their home court a few years back.

Larry, who is married to the former Virginia Winters, has an 11-year-old son and a daughter 5.

City League To Open June 1 . . .

THE CITY Baseball League officially acquired its fourth entry this week when Lawrenceville American Legion Post 163 joined the fold.

Lawrenceville joins Floyd Cox Construction, the East Liverpool Merchants and Irondale.

Vic Reed, a former Chester High athlete, is handling the Lawrenceville team. Bob Campbell will manage Cox Construction, John Andrason will run the East Liverpool Merchants and Joe Urich is piloting the Irondale nine.

Glenn Barnett, president, has set June 1 as opening day. Each team will play 18 games.

The league again will be affiliated with the American Baseball Congress and send a representative to the ABC tournament in August.

The league has named Frank Dawson Jr. as secretary-treasurer.

Officers and managers will meet tonight at 7:30 at Campbell's Motorama on Pennsylvania Ave.

Potts Eyes Quarterback Job . . .

JIM POTTS, who quarterbacked the Potters a few years ago, was at the signal-calling position for the "Browns" in an intrasquad game at Bowling Green University Wednesday night.

Jim transferred from West Virginia University after remaining out of school for a year. He has been drawing attention with his performance so far this spring and will be battling for the starting job come next fall.

East Palestine has three gridders listed on the Bowling Green roster in Bob Bird and Mervin Ward guards and Ed Henry a halfback.

Bob Gibson, who took the Potters to an undefeated season in 1955, is still backfield coach at Bowling Green. He was joined there this year by Bill Mallory, former East Palestine coach, who is handling the ends.

Pierce Defeats Yankees, 4-3, In 11 Innings

Spahn Nips Cards, 1-0, For 249th

By ED WILKS
AP Sports Writer

It's been a long, frustrating fight, but maybe things finally are beginning to break Billy Pierce's way in his running battle with the New York Yankees.

The Chicago White Sox's stubby southpaw has the upper hand on all but two of the other seven American League clubs. One is Detroit, the club he broke in with back in 1948. He's 16-17 against the Tigers. The other is New York (20-30).

He's been faring a bit better against the champs of late, however, winning four of his last five decisions against them. And he made it two in a row the hard way Thursday night, dueling through 11 innings — outpitching both Whitey Ford and Ryne Duren — for a 4-3 victory that left the Sox all alone in second place, a game shy of idle Cleveland.

The defeat, hammered home by Al Smith's two-out, bases-loaded single, plunged the Yankees below .500 once again and put them sixth. Washington slipped ahead to fifth with a 9-1 triumph at Detroit. Kansas City tied Baltimore for third by beating the Orioles 4-3 on Harry Simpson's ninth-inning home run.

Pierce, 32, gave up nine hits, but allowed only one run after Bill Skowron's two-run double in the second. The third Yank run tied it in the seventh when Yogi Berra doubled for his first extra-base hit of the year. A sacrifice and a wild pitch brought him across, but Pierce then took charge for a 3-1 record.

Simpson, hitless in five previous trips this year, walloped his homer leading off the ninth against reliever Billy Loes (1-1). Simpson was hitting for Ned Garver, who won his third in a row after an opening defeat.

Bill Fischer, a balding, 28-year-old right-hander who once worked for the White Sox and Tigers, put Detroit away with a six-hitter. Now 2-0, he blanked the Bengals on three singles after giving up the only earned run he's allowed in 28 innings. It scored on Eddie Yost's fourth-inning homer in his first meeting with his old mates.

Paul Foytack (0-3) lost it, giving up eight hits, one Norm Zauchin's two-run homer. He was chased in a five-run, fifth-inning burst by the Nats, who finished with 17 hits.

Warren (The Wonder) Spahn did it again.

Already well established as one of baseball's all-time great lefthanded pitchers, he added his 249th victory and 45th shutout Thursday night, getting all the help he needed from Hank Aaron's home run for a 1-0 victory over St. Louis.

The victory retained Milwaukee's slim (.045) percentage point lead over Los Angeles in the National League race.

The Dodgers, with Old Guard Duke Snider's two-run, inside-the-park homer capping a four-run seventh inning, won 6-4 at Philadelphia. San Francisco, rained out at Pittsburgh, regained third place as the Chicago Cubs' Bob Anderson and Bill Henry quieted Cincinnati's bats for a 3-2 victory on Ernie Bank's 10th-inning homer.

Spahn, second in victories only to the White Sox's Early Wynn (251) among active pitchers, and topped by none now in business in shutouts, gained a 3-2 record and his second whitewash of the season with a six-hitter. He didn't walk a man and struck out four. Alex Kellner (1-1) lost it.

Snider's homer came off reliever Jack Meyer after Wally Moon's two-run double had tied it against loser Ray Semproch (2-1), who had given up only three hits until the seventh.

Johnny Klippstein (3-1) was the winner with 2 1-3 innings of one-hit relief for Sandy Koufax.

Banks and rookie George Altman took care of the Cubs scoring. Altman doubled and came home on Banks' single in the first inning off Reds' starter Bob Purkey, who also gave up Altman's second major league homer (both in two days) in the third. Banks' homer, his fifth, came off losing reliever Bob Mabe (1-1). Anderson lasted until the ninth. Then Henry (2-0) came on and struck out Vada Pinson with two on.

Bank's Homer Nips Reds, 3-2, In 10th Inning

CINCINNATI (AP) — Manager Mayo Smith probably would pay good money if someone comes up with a recipe to give the Cincinnati Reds good pitching and hitting at the same time.

The Reds came up with some pretty fair hurling Thursday night for a change but the hitters, for the most part, were taking the night off.

As a result the Chicago Cubs wound up with a 3-2 victory on Ernie Banks' 10th inning home run off Bob Mabe.

Mabe had followed Bob Purkey and then Tom Acker to the mound but Purkey was taken out for a pinch hitter and Acker for a pinch runner. The three pitchers allowed the Cubs nine hits but two of them were homers—one by George Altman in addition to the blow by Banks.

But that famed Cincinnati power which had produced 81 runs in the last nine previous games was sadly missing. Bob Anderson and Bill Henry gave up only eight hits and the Reds couldn't come up with that important clutch hit in both the seventh and ninth innings when they could have salted the game away.

Jerry Lunch's home run and Roy McMillan's double were the only extra base hits the Reds produced.

Banks and Altman accounted for all the Cubs runs. Altman's double and Banks' single gave the Bruins a run in the first inning and Altman's homer came in the third.

Both the Cubs and the Reds had the bases full in the seventh without scoring and the Cincinnatians had two on in the ninth when Henry came on to fan Vada Pinson and get the side out.

The Los Angeles Dodgers come in tonight to open a four-game series. Cincinnati's Orlando Pena goes against Don Drysdale.

Kapp Was Not Loser In Sectional Contest

Through an error in reporting the results of the East Liverpool-Toronto Sectional Tournament game, pitcher Mike Kapp was charged the loss, but the loss should go to Jimmy Miles who started the sixth inning of the game and gave up the tying and winning runs. Kapp pitched five innings and gave up only one hit and one unearned run. He was taken out so he could have pitched Thursday against Steubenville Big Red if East Liverpool would have won.

18 Thoroughbreds Poised For 85th Kentucky Derby

By ORLO ROBERTSON

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) — An evenly matched field of 18, packed with horses who take off like a missile, gives promise that Saturday's Kentucky Derby will be one of the swiftest in recent years.

Whirlaway's 2:01 2-5 record clocking of 1941 doesn't appear in danger. But there is so much early speed in the race that the time for the 1¼-mile trip around Churchill Downs may be the fastest since Swaps stopped the clock at 2:01 4-5 four years ago.

Fair skies are expected to greet the Derby Day crowd, annually estimated at 100,000.

Some say this is the most ordinary field of 3-year-olds since Count Turf triumphed in 1951. In winter and early spring stakes the leading candidates beat each other with almost monotonous regularity.

Hardly without exception, favorites for the 85th running of America's most colorful turf event are horses that prefer to run in front or stay close to the pace.

Take C.T. Chenery's First Landing, the 3-1 favorite off a return to the form that won him the 2-year-old title in 1958 and the presence of five-time winner Eddie Arcaro in the saddle.

First Landing lost the Wood Memorial by three-quarters of a length. But he was either in front or at the leader's throat in a 46 1-5 half, a 1:11 six furlongs and a 1:36 mile.

Fred Turner Jr.'s Tomy Lee, second choice at 4-1, set a Keeneland standard of 1:21 3-5 for 7 furlongs in a front running race. Brookmeade Stable's Sword Dancer ripped off 7 furlongs in 1:22 1-5 here a week ago while setting the pace. He's the third choice at 5-1.

James Norris' Easy Spur, Florida Derby winner; C.V. Whitney's Silver Spoon, the filly who won the Santa Anita Derby, and Neil S. McCarthy's Finnegan, victorious in the California derby all have early speed along with such others as Mrs. Jacques Braunstein's Royal Orbit and Calumet Farm's On-and-On.

Five of the last seven derby winners raced on top or near the pace all the way.

If all 18 are in the starting gate at 4:30 p.m. (EST), the winner will receive a net of $120,900.

The race also may be seen on television and hard on radio from 4:15 to 4:45 p.m. EST (CBS).

SOUTHERN PINES, N. C. (AP)—Owen Lewis of Alliance, Ohio, is in a two-way tie for fifth place in the 54-hole Grandmasters Seniors golf tournament here after shooting a first-round 77 Thursday—seven strokes off the leader's pace.

Midland Gains 8-5 Win Over Hopewell In Rain

In a game called at the end of five innings because of rain, Midland picked up an 8-5 victory over Hopewell Thursday at Aliquippa.

A big seven - run second inning provided the Leopards with all the runs they needed for the victory.

The seven runs came on a two-run single by Dean Frederick, four errors, catcher's interference and three walks. Midland added another run in the fourth inning.

The Leopards collected three hits but six Hopewell errors helped the winners. Krizan was the winning pitcher and spaced eight hits.

Hopewell scored two runs in the first and fourth innings and one in the fifth.

The game was played in a light drizzle until it was called in the sixth.

Midland will meet Monaca Monday at Crucible Field.

McLish Faces Yanks Tonight At Cleveland

CLEVELAND (AP)—Is this going to be a merry month for the Cleveland Indians?

You can get an indication tonight when the Tribe sends Cal McLish (2-0) against Art Ditmar (0-1) and the New York Yankees in the opener of a two-game series.

Cleveland got off to a swift start this season, winning its first 10 of 11 games. Then came a three-game losing spell. That gave the Indians a 10-4 mark for April and a one game lead on the rest of the American League.

A year ago, the Yankees broke up any semblance of a race in May by winning 17 of 23 games. It put them 6½ games ahead of the pack and no team was able to get within hailing distance, although the Yanks played only so-so after mid-season.

This season the Yanks are floundering at the start of the season. If Cleveland can take them in the two games, it will be a big morale booster, in addition to putting those games in the victory column.

McLish beat the Yanks twice a year ago, although the Tribe won only seven of 22 meetings. Ditmar, however, also was tough on the Tribe. He beat the Indians three times last season without a loss.

Cleveland hasn't played since losing a doubleheader to Chicago's White Sox Sunday.

Patterson 10-1 Favorite To Retain Heavyweight Crown

Championship Match On TV Tonight At 10

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind. (AP) — Floyd Patterson risks his world heavyweight championship and a half-million-dollar June purse tonight in a 15-round title fight against belittled Brian London of England.

This regally garbed "tuneup" session could turn into a monumental disaster for the 24-year-old American if the burly Briton should get lucky and knock out or outpoint the champion.

NBC will broadcast and telecast the fight nationally at 10 p.m. EDT.

Patterson, making his fourth title defense, is a prohibitive 10-1 choice to win.

London, the husky ex-British champ, will collect $60,000 for his efforts.

Brian, 24, is a 6-foot, 205-pounder with strong legs and fast hands. He apparently punches faster with his right than Pete Rademacher and Roy Harris, a couple of challengers who decked Patterson in title fights before being put out of commission.

The 183-pound titleholder, however, is much faster afoot and with his hands. Floyd should wreck the aggressive, wide-open London with dazzling combinations to that inviting jaw.

A London triumph — which nobody is predicting — would knock Patterson out of his scheduled June 25 defense against Sweden's Ingemar Johansson at New York's Yankee Stadium. Patterson, who goes over the million dollar mark in earnings with tonight's purse of about $185,000 figures to make $500,000 or more against the Swede.

Night Racing Featured At Charles Town

By GEORGE BOWEN
Associated Press Sports Writer

CHARLES TOWN, W. Va. (AP) — Night racing of thoroughbreds makes its debut in the Eastern Panhandle of West Virginia tonight. You can be sure Maryland race track officials will keep a competitive eye on it.

The arclight racing introduces a new note in the fierce competition for the bettor's dollars and the horses on which they're wagered.

The new track, called Shenandoah Downs, gleams brightly like a modern supermarket next to the staid corner grocery, the Charles Town Jockey Club, and casts its shadow over the nearby Maryland tracks.

Backers of Shenandoah Downs, headed by H. N. Glickstein of New York and Albert F. Good of Charleston, W. Va., have plunged four million dollars into the new plant located on 137 acres near U. S. 340.

It is an attractive and comfortable layout with 5,050 seats from which the nine races may be watched. Several thousand more spectators will be provided standing room on a concourse near the finish line.

West Virginia Gov. Cecil H. Underwood will dedicate the track when a $5,000 race will be named in his honor. Tomorrow, Sen. Jennings Randolph D-WVa. will be on hand along with Miss Shenandoah Valley of the Winchester, Va. Apple Blossom Festival.

Shenandoah fans have been promised a riding view of one of the country's leading riders, Bill Hartack, on Monday night. He plans to return to the locale of his first jockey success after riding Easy Spur in the Kentucky Derby on Saturday.

Foxx Is Delighted With Job Offers

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP)—Jimmy Foxx, broke and debt-ridden former American League baseball star, had job offers from throughout the country today.

The Hall of Fame member who lives with a brother in a modest rented home in Phoenix, was quoted Wednesday as saying:

"I'm broke and guess I always will be. When you get 51 years old nobody wants you."

Today, an obviously happy Foxx was ready to retract the statement.

Among the job offers he received was one from Joseph Ersek, manager of the Philadelphia office of an insurance company, and another from Dick Klenhard, manager of the Stockton, Calif., Chamber of Commerce.

Jimmy couldn't remember all the names, but he said others came from a clothing store owner in Sacramento, Calif., a trucking firm operator in Atlanta, Ga., and a supper club owner in Illinois.

Foxx said he would consider all of the offers carefully before making a decision.

West Virginia's Jerry West hit for at least 30 points in 13 basketball games last season. His high was 44 at Tennessee.

Marion Pilot Ruled Out By NCAA

Northern All-Stars Have New Coach For Ohio Tilt

By FRITZ HOWELL
Associated Press Sports Writer

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The Yankees have a new head coach for Ohio's 14th annual North-South high school football game at Canton Aug. 15.

Fred George of Cleveland Cathedral Latin moved into the top spot for the northern squad Thursday night as Gordon Larson, now of the Ohio State University staff, was ruled ineligible for the berth by the NCAA.

Larson, who led Marion Harding to an unbeaten-untied season and second place in The Associated Press team standings last fall before moving to the Bucks as an aide to Woody Hayes, had been named last December to the northern job by the Ohio High School Football Coaches Assn.

But Walter Byers, executive secretary of the NCAA, notified the association Thursday night that coaches of member colleges may not participate in high school games. George, second in the voting, was immediately moved up. Should he decline, the job goes to Mel Knowlton of Alliance's state champions.

In making the change, the coaches decreed that three assistants named by Larson will retain their berths unless they retire voluntarily, in which case George may name replacements.

Assistants named by Larson are Bill Barton of Elyria, Dave Martin of Cuyahoga Falls, and Joe Clark, who has shifted from Jackson-Milton to Cincinnati Indian Hills.

Dave Puddington of Dayton Fairmont will coach the Rebel team, aided by Andy Miller of Groveport, Joe Cochrane of New Concord, and Carl Benhase of Berne-Union.

Larson is the second mentor to lose an all-star berth because of a shift to the college field. In 1954, Bob Brownson of Portsmouth, named to the Rebel job, moved to Ashland College and the position went to Bill Kidd of New Philadelphia.

Jimmy Robinson of Canton McKinley, manager of the North-South game, said the week-long clinic preceding the clash will feature everything from Louisiana State's "Chinese Bandits" to West Point's "Lonesome End."

Robinson said clinic speakers include Paul Dietzel of LSU, 1958 coach of the year; Hayes of Ohio State, 1957 coach of the year; Ara Parseghian of Northwestern; Trevor Rees of Kent State, Ohio's coach of the year in 1958, and Tom Harp, formerly of Massillon and now of West Point.

Carl F. (Ducky) Schroeder of Massillon was elected secretary-treasurer of the scholastic mentors for the 13th year Thursday night, and other officers will be named today as some 1,000 coaches attend Ohio State's annual clinic.

Hal Paul of Steubenville's Big Red is certain of the presidency since he's the only one on the ballot. He succeeds Junie Farrall of Barberton.

Up for the first vice presidency are George Hardie of Youngstown Wilson and Chuck Hofelich of Cleveland Collinwood, and the second vice presidential nominees are Bill Byerly of Lima Shawnee and Jim Kelly of Cincinnati Deer Park.

Paul said he will start an immediate drive to enroll every head coach and all assistants as members of the association, long recognized as one of the most active and militant in the country. About 800 coaches are members.

Association directors voted that secret ballots may be taken on some matters in the future, should the board decide by majority vote to do so. Lone dissenting vote was by Jim Dutey of Coal Grove, who said he felt "we should know how everyone votes on every issue."

The two-day clinic winds up with the Ohio State intra-squad football game Saturday.

Veeck Moves Into Driver's Seat At Last

CHICAGO (AP)— Bill Veeck is in the driver's seat at Comiskey Park at last.

He gained operational control of the Chicago White Sox Thursday in a quickie stockholders' meeting. It was held shortly after Circuit Court denied a temporary injunction sought by Vice President Chuck Comiskey to prevent such a meeting.

Veeck and the corporation he heads control 54 per cent of the stock and now have a 3-1 majority on the board. The board can function with a quorum even if Comiskey refuses to participate.

Comiskey, who controls 46 per cent of the stock, was present at the meeting but abstained from voting in the election on Veeck. Veeck, Comiskey, Mrs. Dorothy Rigney, and one of her attorneys, Roy Egan, make up the board.

Mrs. Rigney, Comiskey's sister, recently sold her controlling interest to Veeck. Comiskey has been battling the sale in court.

Hank Greenberg, the syndicate's biggest shareholder next to Veeck, is expected to be elected a fifth member when the board meets again Tuesday.

Hebert Takes Stroke Lead In Colonial

FORT WORTH, Tex. (AP) — Lionel Hebert, who never has won expense money playing in the Colonial National Invitation Tournament before, was in line for a big slice of cash today as he led the field into the second round.

The chunky member of golf's brother act—Lionel and Hay Hebert—shot a 3-under-par 67 Thursday to take the No. 1 spot.

Just a stroke back was the man who in 1956 won more money than anybody ever has in golf—$72,835—Ted Kroll of Sarasota, Fla.

Nothing much has been heard of Kroll since his big year. But his 2-under-par 68 was a thing of beauty as he putted like a demon.

Hebert, who plays out of Lafayette, La., would have broken the record for the 7,021-yard Colonial Country Club course of 65 had he been able to get his putts to drop.

Tied for third place at 69 were Mike Souchak of Grossinger, NY.; Jack Burke of Kiamesha Lake, N.Y.; Bill Johnston of Provo, Utah, and Ben Hogan of Fort Worth, the man who has four times won this tournament.

ACC May Halt TV On Grid, Cage Games

GREENSBORO, N.C. (AP) — The stay-at-home football and basketball fan in the Atlantic Coast Conference area may not be able to follow his favorite team next season by settling back in an easy chair and flipping on his television set.

There's a growing concern among ACC school officials, assembled here for today's spring meeting, about the falloff in attendance when ACC games have been televised regionally the last two years.

Some school representatives favor calling a halt, at least for a year, to such telecasts to allow a re-examination of the conference TV policy.

Highland Golf Course Bought By Capehart

Doug Capehart, an East Liverpool roofing contractor, announced today the purchase of Highland Country Club in Glenmoor. No figure was disclosed.

The golf course was formerly owned by Fred Hopper. Hopper has been the owner for the past 20 years and prior to that managed the nine-hole golf course for 13 years.

Capehart plans some improvements at the Glenmoor course and green fees will remain the same, he said.

Hopper and his family are planning to leave for Arizona and may reside there permanently.

Fishing Conditions Seen Poor Throughout State

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Fishing conditions throughout most of the state are generally poor although there are a few bright spots in various districts.

Here is THE WEEKEND outlook as summed up by Ohio Department of Natural Resources.

NORTHWEST—Fair to poor for most waters. Heavy rains have caused most streams to be roily or muddy and high. The lakes, including St. Marys, Oxbow and Van Buren, are all high with a few crappies, catfish and some bullheads being caught.

NORTHEAST—One bright spot is the Portage Lakes, Portage and Summit counties, where bass, bluegills, crappies and some northern pike are being caught. Charles Mill Lake, Ashland County and Pymatuning, Ashtabula County, have clear and normal water and fishing is reported fair. Punderson Lake and Aquilla, Geauga County, report good fishing for bass, bluegills, crappies and suckers. Most other waters are generally poor with the outlook only fair for the coming weekend.

EAST CENTRAL AND SOUTHEAST—Fishing in several of the Muskingum District lakes has been good and may improve before the weekend. Clendening Lake and Tappan, Harrison County, report good fishing for bass, bluegills and crappies with an occasional muskie being caught. Leesville Lake, Carroll County, Piedmont and Seneca, Guernsey County, report roily water and fishing only fair. Lake Hope and Lake Alma, Vinton County have roily to clear water with fair fishing. Most other lakes and streams are fair to poor.

CENTRAL AND SOUTHERN—Most streams are too high to provide good fishing although a few lakes are in fair shape. Rocky Fork Lake, Highland County, Jackson Lake, Jackson County, Buckeye Lake, Fairfield County and Hargus Lake, Pickaway County report normal water with fair fishing.

SOUTHWEST—Several lakes in southwest Ohio have reported clear and normal water. Grant Lake, Brown County, Stonelick Lake, Clermont County, Sinclair Lakes, Greene County, Indian Lake, Logan County and Acton Lake, Preble County say fishing for bass, bluegills, crappies and catfish is good. Most streams muddy and high and fishing is generally poor.

SANDUSKY BAY AND LAKE ERIE—Fishing in Sandusky Bay is generally poor although some catches of perch have been reported. There has been little fishing activity around the Bass Islands although the small mouths should start biting within the next 10 days or so.

Bobby Dodd, head football coach for 14 years at George Tech, has been affiliated with the school for 28 years. He's also director of athletics.

Patterson 10-1 Favorite To Retain Heavyweight Crown

Championship Match On TV Tonight At 10

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind. (AP) — Floyd Patterson risks his world heavyweight championship and a half-million-dollar June purse tonight in a 15-round title fight against belittled Brian London of England.

This regally garbed "tuneup" session could turn into a monumental disaster for the 24-year-old American if the burly Briton should get lucky and knock out or outpoint the champion.

NBC will broadcast and telecast the fight nationally at 10 p.m. EDT.

Patterson, making his fourth title defense, is a prohibitive 10-1 choice to win.

London, the husky ex-British champ, will collect $60,000 for his efforts.

Brian, 24, is a 6-foot, 205-pounder with strong legs and fast hands. He apparently punches faster with his right than Pete Rademacher and Roy Harris, a couple of challengers who decked Patterson in title fights before being put out of commission.

The 183-pound titleholder, however, is much faster afoot and with his hands. Floyd should wreck the aggressive, wide-open London with dazzling combinations to that inviting jaw.

A London triumph — which nobody is predicting — would knock Patterson out of his scheduled June 25 defense against Sweden's Ingemar Johansson at New York's Yankee Stadium. Patterson, who goes over the million dollar mark in earnings with tonight's purse of about $185,000 figures to make $500,000 or more against the Swede.

Night Racing Featured At Charles Town

By GEORGE BOWEN
Associated Press Sports Writer

CHARLES TOWN, W. Va. (AP) — Night racing of thoroughbreds makes its debut in the Eastern Panhandle of West Virginia tonight. You can be sure Maryland race track officials will keep a competitive eye on it.

The arclight racing introduces a new note in the fierce competition for the bettor's dollars and the horses on which they're wagered.

The new track, called Shenandoah Downs, gleams brightly like a modern supermarket next to the staid corner grocery, the Charles Town Jockey Club, and casts its shadow over the nearby Maryland tracks.

Backers of Shenandoah Downs, headed by H. N. Glickstein of New York and Albert F. Good of Charleston, W. Va., have plunged four million dollars into the new plant located on 137 acres near U. S. 340.

It is an attractive and comfortable layout with 5,050 seats from which the nine races may be watched. Several thousand more spectators will be provided standing room on a concourse near the finish line.

West Virginia Gov. Cecil H. Underwood will dedicate the track when a $5,000 race will be named in his honor. Tomorrow, Sen. Jennings Randolph D-WVa. will be on hand along with Miss Shenandoah Valley of the Winchester, Va. Apple Blossom Festival.

Shenandoah fans have been promised a riding view of one of the country's leading riders, Bill Hartack, on Monday night. He plans to return to the locale of his first jockey success after riding Easy Spur in the Kentucky Derby on Saturday.

Foxx Is Delighted With Job Offers

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP)—Jimmy Foxx, broke and debt-ridden former American League baseball star, had job offers from throughout the country today.

The Hall of Fame member who lives with a brother in a modest rented home in Phoenix, was quoted Wednesday as saying:

"I'm broke and guess I always will be. When you get 51 years old nobody wants you."

Today, an obviously happy Foxx was ready to retract the statement.

Among the job offers he received was one from Joseph Ersek, manager of the Philadelphia office of an insurance company, and another from Dick Klenhard, manager of the Stockton, Calif., Chamber of Commerce.

Jimmy couldn't remember all the names, but he said others came from a clothing store owner in Sacramento, Calif., a trucking firm operator in Atlanta, Ga., and a supper club owner in Illinois.

Foxx said he would consider all of the offers carefully before making a decision.

West Virginia's Jerry West hit for at least 30 points in 13 basketball games last season. His high was 44 at Tennessee.

Marion Pilot Ruled Out By NCAA

Northern All-Stars Have New Coach For Ohio Tilt

By FRITZ HOWELL
Associated Press Sports Writer

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The Yankees have a new head coach for Ohio's 14th annual North-South high school football game at Canton Aug. 15.

Fred George of Cleveland Cathedral Latin moved into the top spot for the northern squad Thursday night as Gordon Larson, now of the Ohio State University staff, was ruled ineligible for the berth by the NCAA.

Larson, who led Marion Harding to an unbeaten-untied season and second place in The Associated Press team standings last fall before moving to the Bucks as an aide to Woody Hayes, had been named last December to the northern job by the Ohio High School Football Coaches Assn.

But Walter Byers, executive secretary of the NCAA, notified the association Thursday night that coaches of member colleges may not participate in high school games. George, second in the voting, was immediately moved up. Should he decline, the job goes to Mel Knowlton of Alliance's state champions.

In making the change, the coaches decreed that three assistants named by Larson will retain their berths unless they retire voluntarily, in which case George may name replacements.

Assistants named by Larson are Bill Barton of Elyria, Dave Martin of Cuyahoga Falls, and Joe Clark, who has shifted from Jackson-Milton to Cincinnati Indian Hills.

Dave Puddington of Dayton Fairmont will coach the Rebel team, aided by Andy Miller of Groveport, Joe Cochrane of New Concord, and Carl Benhase of Berne-Union.

Larson is the second mentor to lose an all-star berth because of a shift to the college field. In 1954, Bob Brownson of Portsmouth, named to the Rebel job, moved to Ashland College and the position went to Bill Kidd of New Philadelphia.

Jimmy Robinson of Canton McKinley, manager of the North-South game, said the week-long clinic preceding the clash will feature everything from Louisiana State's "Chinese Bandits" to West Point's "Lonesome End."

Robinson said clinic speakers include Paul Dietzel of LSU, 1958 coach of the year; Hayes of Ohio State, 1957 coach of the year; Ara Parseghian of Northwestern; Trevor Rees of Kent State, Ohio's coach of the year in 1958, and Tom Harp, formerly of Massillon and now of West Point.

The two-day clinic winds up with the Ohio State intra-squad football game Saturday.

Fishing Conditions Seen Poor Throughout State

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Fishing conditions throughout most of the state are generally poor although there are a few bright spots in various districts.

Here is THE WEEKEND outlook as summed up by Ohio Department of Natural Resources.

NORTHWEST—Fair to poor for most waters. Heavy rains have caused most streams to be roily or muddy and high. The lakes, including St. Marys, Oxbow and Van Buren, are all high with a few crappies, catfish and some bullheads being caught.

NORTHEAST—One bright spot is the Portage Lakes, Portage and Summit counties, where bass, bluegills, crappies and some northern pike are being caught. Charles Mill Lake, Ashland County and Pymatuning, Ashtabula County, have clear and normal water and fishing is reported fair. Punderson Lake and Aquilla, Geauga County, report good fishing for bass, bluegills, crappies and suckers. Most other waters are generally poor with the outlook only fair for the coming weekend.

EAST CENTRAL AND SOUTHEAST—Fishing in several of the Muskingum District lakes has been good and may improve before the weekend. Clendening Lake and Tappan, Harrison County, report good fishing for bass, bluegills and crappies with an occasional muskie being caught. Leesville Lake, Carroll County, Piedmont and Seneca, Guernsey County, report roily water and fishing only fair. Lake Hope and Lake Alma, Vinton County have roily to clear water with fair fishing. Most other lakes and streams are fair to poor.

CENTRAL AND SOUTHERN—Most streams are too high to provide good fishing although a few lakes are in fair shape. Rocky Fork Lake, Highland County, Jackson Lake, Jackson. County, Buckeye Lake, Fairfield County and Hargus Lake, Pickaway County report normal water with fair fishing.

SOUTHWEST—Several lakes in southwest Ohio have reported clear and normal water. Grant Lake, Brown County, Stonelick Lake, Clermont County, Sinclair Lakes, Greene County, Indian Lake, Logan County and Acton Lake, Preble County say fishing for bass, bluegills, crappies and catfish is good. Most streams muddy and high and fishing is generally poor.

SANDUSKY BAY AND LAKE ERIE—Fishing in Sandusky Bay is generally poor although some catches of perch have been reported. There has been little fishing activity around the Bass Islands although the small mouths should start biting within the next 10 days or so.

Judge H. Church Ford issued the order, good for five days, in U.S. District Court at Lexington on a petition filed by the National Labor Relations Board against UMW Districts 19 and 30. The union was directed to stop violence and mass picketing.

Ford's action followed three dynamitings and an exchange of more than 200 shots in a 24-hour period.

Ford, who previously issued a 15-day restraining order on a complaint by the Louisville and Nashville Railroad, also set a hearing Monday at Jackson. He directed the union to answer NLRB charges of violence and unfair labor practices.

Hancock Waits New Boat License Forms

Applications for motorboat licenses became available today at offices of county clerks in West Virginia, but Hancock County Courthouse officials at New Cumberland said they as yet had received no information on the new law.

The $5 fee and completed form must be submitted to the Conservation Department at Charleston by July 1. They will be good only until the end of this year. Renewals for a year will cost $2 each.

The Conservation Department estimates from 15,000 to 17,000 of some 22,500 motorboats in the state will come under the law enacted by the Legislature this year.

The law covers boats powered by motors of more than 5 horsepower, with such exceptions as a craft carrying a valid marine document issued by any federal agency.

New Castle Firm Buys Land For Power Plant

The Pennsylvania Power Co. of New Castle has acquired about 190 acres near Shippingport for construction of a new power plant sometime in the future, a company official said today.

No immediate plans for construction have been made, the official said. The land is located little more than a mile east of the Shippingport atomic power plant of the Duquesne Light Co.

The official said the availability of the Ohio River's cooling water and the economy of river movement of coal were factors in acquiring the land.

Surplus Food To Be Issued

Distribution of surplus food at the Central Fire Station will be held May 14-15 and at Wellsville City Hall May 18, Robert Bycroft, Columbiana County welfare director, announced today in a May schedule for the food program.

Distribution will be held May 11-12 at the warehouse at Columbiana and May 13 at Salem, Bycroft said.

During April, only 65 per cent of those certified to obtain the surplus commodities actually collected the food, the welfare director reported.

A total of 1,140 cases were qualified to obtain food for 2,547 county residents, but only 743 distributions were made on behalf of 1,872 persons, he said.

A breakdown of the commodities distributed last month shows 5,875 pounds of cornmeal, 9,270 pounds of flour, 2,637 pounds of butter, 1,404 pounds of rice and 4,815 pounds of dry milk.

Bycroft said he expects a similar amount of the same foods to be available this month.

Air Force Offers Duty For Lawyers

The Air Force has vacancies for lawyers in its Judge Advocate General Department, T. Sgt. Charles D. Ward, recruiter at City Hall, said today.

Sgt. Ward said applications are being accepted for an expected 500 vacancies in the Air Force legal department within the next year. Applicants must be graduates of an accredited law school and a member of the bar of a federal court or of the highest court of the state, he pointed out. They must be U. S. citizens, physically qualified for general service and of high moral character.

Unlike other officer programs, those who enter the JAG department may qualify for higher rank in accordance with an Air Force formula, the recruiter explained. For instance, a first lieutenant's commission is open to men under 34 and captain's rank is available for those under 40 with at least 7 years experience but less than 14 years of combined legal education and legal experience.

The ranks range upward through major, lieutenant colonel and colonel for those who have shown "unequivocal and exceptional performance and ability in their professional field."

Ohio View Club Delays Proposal To Disband

The Ohio View Community Club met Tuesday night in Logan School to decide whether to continue or disband, but delayed action until 1960. Organized in 1938, it has been instrumental in the development of the area with projects including improvement of telephone service, obtaining street lights and street signs and numbering of individual houses in the area.

The township will become the borough of Industry in 1960 and the usefulness of the club may not be as important then. It was decided during the informal meeting, conducted by the president, Robert Safford, to continue at least until January and leave the decision in the hands of borough officials.

W. S. MacBride, the first president in 1938, and Clyde Piquet, first secretary, attended the meeting. MacBride screened movies on "Safe Boating."

The unit will hold their next meeting in the school on May 25.

Hancock Waits New Boat License Forms

Applications for motorboat licenses became available today at offices of county clerks in West Virginia, but Hancock County Courthouse officials at New Cumberland said they as yet had received no information on the new law.

The $5 fee and completed form must be submitted to the Conservation Department at Charleston by July 1. They will be good only until the end of this year. Renewals for a year will cost $2 each.

The Conservation Department estimates from 15,000 to 17,000 of some 22,500 motorboats in the state will come under the law enacted by the Legislature this year.

The law covers boats powered by motors of more than 5 horsepower, with such exceptions as a craft carrying a valid marine document issued by any federal agency.

New Castle Firm Buys Land For Power Plant

The Pennsylvania Power Co. of New Castle has acquired about 190 acres near Shippingport for construction of a new power plant sometime in the future, a company official said today.

No immediate plans for construction have been made, the official said. The land is located little more than a mile east of the Shippingport atomic power plant of the Duquesne Light Co.

The official said the availability of the Ohio River's cooling water and the economy of river movement of coal were factors in acquiring the land.

May Day Celebration? 8 Jailed For Drinking

"Maybe it was May Day celebration," police commented after eight persons from widely-scattered communities were jailed here early today on intoxication charges.

Most of the men and women were arrested in the wee hours after midnight. They gave addresses in East Liverpool, Newell, Chester, Midland, Beaver and London, Ohio. Four forfeited $16 bonds in Municipal Court and the others were fined $10 and $6 costs.

Surplus Food To Be Issued

Distribution of surplus food at the Central Fire Station will be held May 14-15 and at Wellsville City Hall May 18, Robert Bycroft, Columbiana County welfare director, announced today in a May schedule for the food program.

Distribution will be held May 11-12 at the warehouse at Columbiana and May 13 at Salem, Bycroft said.

During April, only 65 per cent of those certified to obtain the surplus commodities actually collected the food, the welfare director reported.

A total of 1,140 cases were qualified to obtain food for 2,547 county residents, but only 743 distributions were made on behalf of 1,872 persons, he said.

A breakdown of the commodities distributed last month shows 5,875 pounds of cornmeal, 9,270 pounds of flour, 2,637 pounds of butter, 1,404 pounds of rice and 4,815 pounds of dry milk.

Bycroft said he expects a similar amount of the same foods to be available this month.

Air Force Offers Duty For Lawyers

The Air Force has vacancies for lawyers in its Judge Advocate General Department, T. Sgt. Charles D. Ward, recruiter at City Hall, said today.

Sgt. Ward said applications are being accepted for an expected 500 vacancies in the Air Force legal department within the next year. Applicants must be graduates of an accredited law school and a member of the bar of a federal court or of the highest court of the state, he pointed out. They must be U. S. citizens, physically qualified for general service and of high moral character.

Unlike other officer programs, those who enter the JAG department may qualify for higher rank in accordance with an Air Force formula, the recruiter explained. For instance, a first lieutenant's commission is open to men under 34 and captain's rank is available for those under 40 with at least 7 years experience but less than 14 years of combined legal education and legal experience.

The ranks range upward through major, lieutenant colonel and colonel for those who have shown "unequivocal and exceptional performance and ability in their professional field."

Ohio View Club Delays Proposal To Disband

The Ohio View Community Club met Tuesday night in Logan School to decide whether to continue or disband, but delayed action until 1960. Organized in 1938, it has been instrumental in the development of the area with projects including improvement of telephone service, obtaining street lights and street signs and numbering of individual houses in the area.

The township will become the borough of Industry in 1960 and the usefulness of the club may not be as important then. It was decided during the informal meeting, conducted by the president, Robert Safford, to continue at least until January and leave the decision in the hands of borough officials.

W. S. MacBride, the first president in 1938, and Clyde Piquet, first secretary, attended the meeting. MacBride screened movies on "Safe Boating."

The unit will hold their next meeting in the school on May 25.

Plan For College Scholarship Aired By County PTA Unit

A committee to complete arrangements for awarding a scholarship was appointed at a meeting of the Columbiana County Parent - Teacher Council Thursday night at McKinley School in Wellsville.

Mrs. Mary Jo Kirkland of the West Point and Mrs. Betty Whalen of Salineville were named co-chairmen of the committee. The other members are Mrs. Ruth Phillips of Franklin Local and Mrs. Dorothy Bunfill and Mrs. Marjorie Dysert, both of Wellsville.

The committee will hold its first meeting Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Whalen.

The council plans to award a scholarship to a senior in a school which is a member of the county organization.

Mrs. Monell Stoll announced plans for a summer library program to be sponsored by the Wellsville Junior Chamber of Commerce. It will not be confined to Wellsville children, she reported, and tentative plans calls for the program to be held once a week for children from kindergarten through sixth grade. It will include a story telling hour and book clubs.

A nominating committee of Agin Bowling, Mrs. Dysert, Mrs. Bunfill and Mrs. Doris Adams of Salineville was appointed by Mrs. Floreine Broderick, president. Election will be held at the next meeting, tentatively set for May 22 at Calcutta.

Rubber Union, Seiberling Co. Reach Accord

AKRON, Ohio (AP)—Seiberling Rubber Co. is the second manufacturer to reach a settlement with the United Rubber Workers Union on a new contract and supplemental agreements.

The agreement came Thursday night a few hours before the expiration of the master contract. As yet the language has not been worked out, and no details were released.

Seiberling employs 1,400 at plants in suburban Barberton and at Carey, Ohio.

The URW contract with General Tire & Rubber Co. also expired at midnight. But as negotiations are continuing, and as the union has not taken a strike vote, there was no immediate prospect of a stoppage. General Tire employs 3,200 in plants here and in Waco, Tex.

The first settlement was with one of the industry's big four—Goodyear Tire & Rubber Co., which employs 23,000 workers in 11 cities. This was ratified last weekend while Goodyear plants continued in operation.

But this far negotiations have failed to produce results in the union's biggest strike, which involves about 58,000 union members employed by the other three members of the big four.

A strike against U. S. Rubber Co. began April 10 and against Firestone and B. F. Goodrich a week later. Their plants are scattered through 31 cities in 16 states.

In all cases, the negotiations involve a new master contract, a separate agreement on pensions and insurance, and a separate agreement on supplemental unemployment benefits. Wage provisions are subject to re-opening clauses and will be discussed some time in the coming summer.

Gas Fumes Are Fatal To Family Of Three

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—If the gas company had stopped service a day sooner, Robert Burton, 18, his wife, Sophie, 16, and their daughter, Judy, four months, might be alive today.

Their bodies were found by police Thursday in the apartment where they had lived only six days. They apparently died of carbon monoxide fumes from an unlit gas heater Wednesday night, officers said.

Sometime after 9 o'clock the next morning, carbon monoxide stopped flowing from the heater when the gas was turned off for non-payment of a bill.

To clean leather upholstery, rub the dirt from it with warm water and soap. Wipe with a cloth wrung from clear water. Dry thoroughly, and then rub gently with a cloth wrung from a little warm milk to restore the gloss to the surface.
